Government Change Asked for Economy

Teetsel Is Elected C. of C. President

Robert E. Teetsel of 87 Johnston avenue was elected president of the Kingston Chamber of Commerce for 1949 at a meeting of the board of directors Wednesday night. He succeeds Louis B. Stetler who has been ill at his home for several months. Clarence S. Rowland, acting president, presided at the organization meeting of the board attended by both the retiring directors and those who were recently elected. Attorney Lloyd B. LeFevre was present at the meeting and completed the final steps of incorporating the Kingston Chamber of Commerce. This included the adoption of the by-laws by the 1948 board of directors and other routine matters. The new directors who officially took office last night were: D. N. Ashton, James P. Byrne, Eugene B. Carey, Byron S. Chatham, Addison Jones, Victor L. Roth, and Robert E. Teetsel. Other officers elected were: George W. Schneider, first vice-president; Edmund F. Rochford, second vice-president; James P. Byrne, third vice-president and Victor L. Roth as treasurer. Albert Kurl was re-appointed as executive secretary for another year. The president, treasurer and the three vice-presidents constitute the executive committee. It was voted to sponsor an employment stabilization meeting with a speaker from the National Association of Manufacturers. This will be held early in February. President Teetsel announced that he would appoint the various functioning committees of the Chamber of Commerce within the next week. It was authorized to appoint the committees by the board of directors in accordance with the by-laws. New committees will be appointed to succeed those

Taft Sees Few Moves In T-H Law

Co-Sponsor of Statute Says Idea Erroneous To Have Two-Step Handling

Myers, Lucas Agree Taft Idea Is Correct; Will Meet Today

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today it would be "idiotic" for Congress to handle labor legislation in two steps as urged by the A.F.L. and C.I.O. Taft told a reporter that "one package" treatment is inevitable. And he predicted that all major sections of the Taft-Hartley law will survive the administration's drive to repeal the measure. The Ohioan expressed his opinions in advance of the Senate Labor Committee's first meeting of the session today (3 p.m.). Taft is the ranking Republican member of the unit, now controlled by the Democrats. President Truman's program calls for getting rid of the Taft-Hartley law, restoring the old Wagner Act and making "certain improvements" in that act. Organized labor wants Congress to "latch" the program in two steps. A first bill would provide for Taft-Hartley repeal and Wagner restoration. A second, to be handled later, would deal with the Wagner Act changes Mr. Truman is seeking. The unions' objective is to get the Taft-Hartley law off the books quickly so they will know where they stand when new contract negotiations start soon with management. They contend that controversy over Wagner Act changes would delay Taft-Hartley repeal. Taft, a co-author of the Taft-Hartley measure, is of course opposed to Mr. Truman's program. And he said he has been amused by the unions' demands for two-package handling of it. "All this talk about two packages is entirely academic," he declared. "Anyone familiar with the Senate rules knows that any bill simply to repeal the Taft-Hartley law and restore the Wagner Act is subject to amendment on the Senate floor. As sure as such a bill is brought out, we will offer amendments to keep all the key sections of the Taft-Hartley law on the books. I am confident the amendments will pass." Senator Myers (D-Pa.), the deputy majority leader, happened to come by while Taft was stating his views. Myers is backing Mr. Truman's program, but he remarked the Taft ideas on the single package idea represent "the only practical way." Senator Lucas (Ill.), the new Democratic floor leader, already has come out for the one step procedure. In the Senate Labor Committee, however, there is some strong backing for the unions' two stage plan. The group is expected to decide at today's meeting what method to advocate.

Odum Flies Over Pacific From Hawaii to New York

San Francisco, Jan. 13 (AP)—The C.A.A. reported Bill Odum, who is trying for a 5,285 mile flight record for small planes, only 850 miles from Seattle at 8:30 a. m. (PST) today. The C.A.A. radio station here established contact with the small Beechcraft Bonanza plane in which Odum left Honolulu last night. He was flying at 9,000 feet. Honolulu, Jan. 13 (AP)—William P. (Bill) Odum, jocular and confident at the outset, flew his single-engine "Waikiki Beach" eastward today in quest of a 5,285 mile flight record for small planes. Powered by a 185-horsepower engine, the gleaming silver Beechcraft Bonanza lifted smoothly from the Honolulu airport last night at 6:32 p. m. (11:32 p. m. E.S.T.) into the Hawaiian moonlight. The small, 1,500-pound plane climbed steadily and banked to the south to clear Diamond Head. "My destination is Teterboro airport just outside New York," Odum said before, squeezing his lanky frame into the tiny compartment of the heavily-laden plane. He was wearing a freshly pressed Scotch plaid "good luck" suit. An escorting navy PBV radioed that Odum was riding a favorable

Court Will Give Ruling Feb. 28

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Supreme Court today deferred until Feb. 28 a hearing on the constitutionality of the non-Communist affidavit requirement of the Taft-Hartley Act. Argument had been scheduled to begin late today, in a case filed by the C.I.O. American Communications Association. Court attaches said the justices decided to hold off, pending action on a petition filed by the C.I.O. Steelworkers of America raising the same issue. The court has yet to decide whether it will give the steelworkers a hearing. Should it decide to hear that petition, the two cases might be consolidated, or at least decided together.

Tug Strike Hour Set at Midnight; Negotiators Fail

O'Dwyer Says New York Will Go in Fuel Business, if Halt Comes

New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—Deadline for a tugboat strike which would cripple New York harbor was advanced to midnight tonight when negotiators failed to agree on overtime pay rates early today. Negotiations continued until dawn after the walkout of 3,500 harbor workers was postponed from last midnight. Mayor William O'Dwyer, sweating the conferences with spokesmen for employers and an A.F.L. union, reportedly told the employer group: "This (strike) is not going to happen. If the strike goes on, the city will go into the fuel business." Lloyd Dalzell, employers committee spokesman, said the stumbling block was a demand by Local 333, Marine Division of the A.F.L. International Longshoremen's Association for this: "A new principle of overtime payment which would increase wages considerably more than the entire total of 18 per cent, on which, until this morning, it was expected that an agreement would be reached." Dalzell said substantial agreement apparently had been reached on a fifth employer offer composed of a 12 per cent hourly wage increase and other concessions "amounting to a total of at least 18 per cent." The harbor workers, whose contract expired December 31, have been seeking a 25 per cent wage increase and other benefits. Present basic pay ranges from $6 cents to $14.9 an hour. Joseph E. O'Grady, director of the city's labor relation division, declared negotiations were terminated at 6:45 a. m. (E.S.T.) today in order to comply with a Taft-Hartley Law provision that no strike can start during negotiations. The mayor told both sides a

San Francisco Man Is Held In Black Dahlia Slaying Quiz

Los Angeles, Jan. 13 (AP)—A San Francisco freelance writer is held for questioning today concerning the slaying two years ago of Elizabeth Short, known as the Black Dahlia. The prisoner, Jeff Conners, 40, is on route here from San Francisco with Joseph Reed, Los Angeles assistant police chief, and detectives. "The party left San Francisco yesterday and was reported to have stopped overnight at an undisclosed place. Conners, arrested at Gilroy, Calif., near San Francisco, Tuesday night and held for questioning on a technical "en route" looking, denied he ever knew Miss Short, much less being involved in the brutal killing. Detectives were led to Conners by statements made by Leslie Dil-

Franks Has Date With President

British Ambassador Is to Give Anglo View Regarding Palestine Problem

Jews Are Blamed

Israel to Be Pictured as Aggressor in Present Phase of War

London, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Foreign office announced British ambassador Sir Oliver Franks will see President Truman this afternoon in a meeting apparently aimed at patching up deepening British-American differences over Palestine. A Foreign Office spokesman said Franks will seek to "make plain the attitude of His Majesty's government, and to learn further the attitude of the American Government, in the hope that the two countries can cooperate in settling the Holy Land conflict. An informed diplomatic source said Franks has received instructions from Foreign Secretary Edwin Scrymgeour's four-hour-long British Cabinet session today to make these points to President Truman: 1. Britain regards the Jews as the aggressors in the present phase of the Palestine War. 2. Britain feels that unless Jews and Arabs get a settlement of "security, tranquility, peace" of the Middle East will remain upset, with results that can only benefit Communism. 3. Britain will regard a Jewish attack on the Red Sea port of Faha or on any other part of Trans-Jordan, as an attack on itself now that King Abdullah has invoked the British-Trans-Jordan mutual defense treaty. 4. Britain does not intend to suspend the precautionary measures it has taken in the conflict area. (This includes alerting of naval units in East Mediterranean bases; dispatch of British troops to Arabia; placing of J.A.F. airfields in the Suez Canal zone of Egypt on a war-readiness basis.) Calls, Handling Confused Earlier, Anthony Eden, the Conservative spokesman, expressed fear of a British-American break over Palestine, and termed Bevin's handling of Middle Eastern affairs confused. Eden declared in a political talk at Warwick last night the British Labor Government and the U. S. State Department must share the blame "for failure to delay a firm policy or to take a firm line." "I have long been anxious lest these Palestinian events should imperil Anglo-American friendship," said the man who was wartime foreign secretary under Winston Churchill, and is second only to Churchill in the Conservative party leadership. "Surely the time has now come when a supreme effort must be made to agree on the spot."

Senate G.O.P. Is In Favor of Raises

Matter Is Decided During Strategy Meeting of Committee

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Senate Republican leaders today agreed to allow speedy passage of a bill raising the pay of the President, vice president and speaker of the House. Chairman Taft (R-Ohio), said this was decided at a closed-door strategy meeting of the G.O.P. Policy Committee shortly before the legislation was due to reach the Senate floor. The bill also calls for salary boosts for cabinet and other high federal officials but even Democrats have given up hope of getting immediate approval for these despite President Truman's plea for prompt action. In telling reporters of the policy group's decision, Taft said: "We decided to raise no objections as a party if the bill is cut down to include only the President, vice president and speaker. Of course our decision will not prevent individual senators from making objections." Taft said the Republicans also wanted to make sure the bill does not make any change in the pension system. The House speaker is entitled to a pension, as well as other government executives originally

Red Terms Cited Ouster of Chiang Heads Requirements for Beginning of Peace Talks

Peiping, Jan. 13 (AP)—Chinese Communists have laid down specific conditions for the beginning of national peace talks, a source here said today. He listed them as: 1. Removal of Chiang Kai-Shek and Vice President Li Tsung-shen from office. 2. Scrapping of the Chinese Constitution. 3. A mutual cease fire order with both sides holding their present positions. 4. Examination and punishment of "war criminals." Chiang heads the Communist's list. 5. Establishment of a coalition government with a five, three, four ratio—five Communist members (three Kuomintang and four representing all other Chinese political parties). The Communists, according to this source, apparently did not specify whether the Kuomintang representing all other Chinese of the "Kuomintang Revolutionary" as the Reds classify. Marshal Li Chi-Sen and other Kuomintang dissidents. This naturally would be an important point for Nanking. This same source predicted Chiang would issue another

School District Will Buy 34 Acres of Boiceville Land

Reade Buys Land For New Drive-In Theatre Owner Acquires 18 Acres North of By-Pass

Details were completed this week for the transfer of approximately 18 acres of land along Route 9W near D-D's Drive-in to the Walter Reade theatre interests for the purpose of erecting a drive-in theatre, it was learned today. The property, which is not far beyond the intersection of the East Chester street by-pass on Albany avenue extension, was bought from Antonio Felazzo and Giacomo Licciardo. Announcement of the sale was made by Robert W. Case, manager of Reade's local theatres. He said the drive-in theatre will accommodate 900 cars, is scheduled to open on or about April 15 and will employ 20 men. Sale of the land was arranged through Mann & Gross, local realtors, and the theatre interests were represented by Cashin & Elvig, local attorneys. The local theatre manager stressed the point that the new theatre will create employment for local men and he asked that anyone interested make application at the Broadway theatre. Announcement of the proposal of the Reade theatre interests to build an area drive-in theatre was made last month, but at that time no decision had been made as to the site.

Proposition Carries by 3 to 1; About 400 Persons Attend

A proposition to purchase 34.375 acres of land at Boiceville as the site for the Ontario Central School District No. 1 school building was carried three to one at a school meeting held at the parish hall in Phenicia last evening. There were approximately 400 people from the district present and a total of 339 votes were cast. The vote recorded was 272 in favor of the purchase of the site and 87 votes were cast in opposition. This overwhelming vote in favor of purchase of the site brings the erection of a new central building one step closer to realization. Selected as the site for the central school which will accommodate students from the district which includes Shandaken, Olive, part of the township of

Talks Held With France And Britain

Action Is Considered On Sino Opening of Possibility; Attitudes Are Asked

May Send Answer

State Department May Send Reply to Chiang Government

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—The United States was reported today consulting with Britain and France on a Chinese government move aimed at opening the way to mediation by outside powers in China's war. Under Secretary of State Lovett told a news conference yesterday that a communication had been received from Chiang Kai-shek's government but declined to say what it was about. However, press dispatches from Nanking have reported that China was raising the question of possible action by one or more of the Big Four nations—Britain, France, America and Russia—to try to end the long conflict between Chinese government and Communist forces. These reports are in line with information from diplomatic sources here. The Chinese evidently have not directly suggested mediation but have opened the way either to suggest it or to have some nation or group of nations volunteer "good offices," by inquiring as to the attitude of each of the Big Four on the possibilities of a peaceful settlement in China. Some answer may be sent to Nanking by the State Department in a few days, but indications are that no step will be taken by Washington without careful checking with London and Paris. Diplomats consider it a speculative possibility that Moscow's opinion on the China situation is also being sought by the United States and possibly by the other western powers. It seems likely that none of the western nations would want to make a move in China which would bring it into direct conflict with any pending Soviet move there. As far as the United States is concerned, officials apparently do not intend to put this government in position of taking responsibility for any future action of Generalissimo Chiang, whether directed toward making peace or continuing the war. American policy in recent months has been hands off and officials here insist that neither in Washington nor Nanking have American authorities urged any particular course of action upon Chiang. The situation is further complicated by the fact that Chiang's New Year's appeal for peace has been rejected by the Communists and authorities in the western capitals are reported uncertain whether there is in fact any basis for outside mediation or whether efforts along that line would have any chance of success. The U. S. sounding out of British and French opinion on Chiang's latest mediation maneuver evidently occurs as part of a larger picture of informal talks among the western powers about the whole problem of Communism in Asia. The immediate aim of these discussions, involving principally London and Washington, is to try to find some way of blocking the spread of Communism in other areas in Asia if the Communists succeed in taking over all China.

The City Council voted last night to acquiesce in the belligerents in China of the city's willingness to be the site for peace negotiations. Mayor Cecil M. G.O.P. Support Builds for More Education Aid Albany, N. Y., Jan. 13 (AP)—Influential Republican legislative support built up today behind increased state aid for education. It developed in the face of moves by Governor Dewey to consolidate majority G.O.P. ranks against a sizeable boost.

Two key assemblymen, Wheeler Milmo, and Harry A. Reoux, said they would seek more state aid than the $40,000,000 increase mandated by the 1948 Feinberg law.

Milmo, co-sponsor last year of the unsuccessful Young-Milmo bill, announced he would introduce a measure next week calling for $60,000,000 more than the mandated sum.

Reoux told a reporter yesterday that thinking among some Republican assemblymen was in terms of "over and above" the $40,000,000 required by the Feinberg law to pay for the pupil enrollment increases.

He said the assemblymen had been talking about $25,000,000 more and easy on the one hand, but he could not say how much that was too much or not enough.

Reoux led an abortive anti-administration revolt of 26 G.O.P. assemblymen last year in favor of the Young-Milmo bill which called for an increase in state aid of $103,000,000.

Milmo said Republican assemblymen "unanimously favored" some increase but many were undecided on the amount.

He said the bill he would introduce next week had the backing of the State Educational Conference Board.

Support of Milmo's measure also was announced by the Public Education Association in New York city yesterday.

The Educational Conference Board, a research organization headed by Paul R. Mort of Columbia University, endorsed the Young-Milmo bill last year.

Calls for $6,000,000.

The so-called Mort report, issued recently by the board, called for a $60,000,000 increase above the $194,000,000 mandated this year by the Feinberg law. The board said only $15,000,000 of that would be required this year.

Milmo said his bill also would call for a $60,000,000 boost but that only about $20,000,000 would be needed this year.

Democrats also have announced they would support measures based on the Mort report.

Meanwhile, on a strictly political level, Republicans and Democrats continued to trade blows.

Democratic Senate and Assembly leaders Elmer F. Quinn and Edwin Steingut said the Republicans had presented only a "partial breakdown" when they claimed earlier this week that the Democratic legislative program would cost $1,704,500,000.

Republican leaders promptly labeled the Democratic contention a "complete falsehood." They said Senate Majority Leader Benjamin F. Feinberg had "outlined the fantastic Democratic spending program in detail, point by point, dollar by dollar" in the Senate Monday night.

Feinberg was joined by Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Hoek in calling on the Democrats to back Governor Dewey's efforts for a $400,000,000 St. Lawrence river power project.

They said that if the Democratic Party was "sincere in supporting its publicly announced program" it would join with the Republican majority in memorializing President Truman "to withdraw his opposition to the project."

'Package' Ideas of Taft-Hartley Proposal Revisions Have More in Them Than Meets Eye.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Jan. 13.—The "one-package" and "two-package" ideas with respect to amendment or repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act have in them more than meets the eye.

It is a strange case in which labor unions really want to dictate the procedure by which Congress shall consider legislation. Like other lobbies here, they have every constitutional right to petition Congress and to urge that certain legislation be taken up in a way that will be most favorable to their interests. But Congress alone decides how much it will yield to such pressure and influence.

In the case of the labor-union lobby, it is getting ready to threaten members of both Houses with punishment at the polls if they fail to do as the labor unions ask. This is very effective because the citizens who could be interested in defending the rights of Congress have the hard job of voting the convictions without regard to threats are not organized and hence that part of the membership which keeps no support for their side is in-

The chances of delaying passage of the "one package" bill to any form satisfactory to the national group which wants to see the Wagner Labor Relations Act passed are doubtful. The question is whether the court really becomes interested in issues, or whether Congress considers that a "mandate" was given by the people to put a stop to the law back on the statute books.

Even this minimum is reluctantly agreed to and the truth is the labor leaders feel confident that the Wagner bill will pass. They think there will be no further legislation.

The Republicans seem to have misused on their strategy on the labor front. This is a weapon of the minority and the Republicans are in the minority. The southern Democrats probably would have been more successful if they had worked with the Republicans on labor issues if the latter had not been so arrogant in their rules of the House. It will take a little while for the labor bill to reach the Senate.

For twelve years after the Wagner Act was passed in 1935, the labor-union lobby succeeded in preventing any amendments whatsoever. A favorable majority in the Senate committee helped to

You will hear a thousand men allege that they covered Harrison street station in Chicago when the policemen really knew how to lead a witness, but I won't say any more than just that I used to

There was a sergeant at Harvard who, for some personal reason, seems to hex the lower classes for the congressman salazar. School District

Woodstock and two districts in Greene county, is a large flat now owned by Leonard Colange near the junction of Route 28 and Route 28-A. The purchase price is $13,750. The vote last evening was a complete endorsement of the action of the Board of Education of the district which has been working toward the ultimate erection of a central school to replace the several small district schools of the area. John H. Moulie is supervising principal of the Onondaga Central School district.

The meeting Wednesday evening was opened by Lester Shults of Wittenberg, president pro tem of the Board of Education.

James A. Simpson of Phoenixia was selected as chairman and presided at the meeting. Tellers were James Shults of Wittenberg and Virgil Gordon of Brown Station.

The tally clerks were Mrs. Christine Smith of Phoenixia, William Cruikshank of Big Indian, Mrs. Reginald Every of Mt. Tremper and Miss Jane Gulnic of Ashokan.

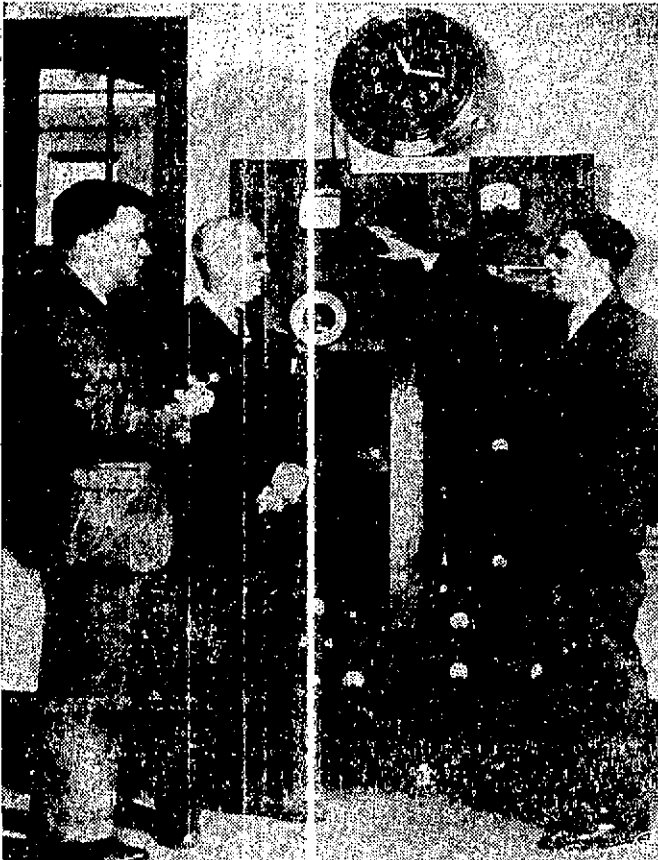

Next step in the program will be the matter of determining the number of students who will have to be housed. For this purpose a study will be made of the records in the town clerks' offices of the area to determine the birth rates for the past five years or more and from those figures to project into the future the possible birth rate for the next five years. A study of new housing in the area will also be made to determine the possible growth of the area population and once this study is completed it will show the probable number of children who must be provided with school facilities in the immediate future.

Once the number of children to be housed is determined, the next step will be the employment of an architect to prepare plans and specifications for an adequate building. Plans completed, bids will be sought. Before the actual building operations are commenced, however, the voters of the area will be required to vote on the proposition of a bond issue to raise funds for the construction.

Developed by the Bureau of Standards in Washington, its mechanism is guided by ammonia atoms, which is said to make it more accurate than the stars. City Group Gives $250 to May Family

Robert W. Case, manager of Reade's local theatres, said today that he would turn over early next week to the family of August May of Wittenberg, which was recently left homeless by fire, a check for $250 which had been collected through the efforts of a local committee.

Working on the committee were Frank Hopper, president of the local film operators' union; Kenneth Every, the union's secretary; Miss Elizabeth Risley, manager of Reade's Kingston Theatre and Huyler VanWagenen.

The fund started with a donation of $25 by the Central Business Men's Association, which is headed by Case, and others who contributed $25 were the film operators' union and The Avalon on Route 28. Other donations were made by employees of the local theatres and employees of the Kresge Five & Ten Cent store on Wall street.

Acheson Says He and Hiss Are Friends and Remain So

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Dean Acheson, nominee for secretary of state, testified today that he and Alger Hiss are friends "and we remain friends."

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, quickly led a hearing on the nomination into the question of Acheson's relations with Hiss, his former subordinate in the State Department.

Hiss is under perjury indictment in connection with his denial that he ever gave any secret State Department information to Whitaker Chambers, who has admitted he served as a Communist courier.

Acheson told the committee that Donald Hiss, brother of Alger, served as Acheson's assistant when the latter was assistant secretary of state. He said Donald Hiss "served me and the country with complete fidelity and loyalty."

The nominee said Alger Hiss was employed in other departments and did not report directly to him until Acheson became undersecretary of state in 1946. Hiss headed the division which handled relations with the United Nations.

Observing that "my friendship is not given easily and it is not easily withdrawn," Acheson declared solemnly:

"Alger Hiss and I became friends and we remain friends." "The questioning turned to Alger Hiss after Acheson had denied his law firm had any influence in the State Department's approval of a $90,000,000 loan to the Communist-controlled Polish government in 1946.

Reads Testimony
Acheson read portions of the testimony given by Adolf Berle, former assistant secretary of state, before the House Un-American Activities Committee. Berle testified that Alger Hiss was Acheson's executive assistant.

Acheson said Berle's memory was wrong. He went on to outline his association with Alger's brother, Donald, who was his executive assistant for several years. Acheson also told of going to Berle's office to discuss the Hiss brothers. He said Berle told him of information that one of the Hiss brothers "had associations" which would make his presence in Acheson's office embarrassing to the department.

Acheson said he asked Berle which one of the Hiss brothers he referred to. He said Berle told him he could not say. Neither, Acheson said, would Berle tell him the source of his information "for security reasons."

Acheson said he told Berle he would speak to Donald Hiss about the matter, but on the basis of the "vague" and unsupported information Berle had given him, he had no intention of dismissing Hiss.

He said he questioned Donald Hiss and Hiss told him he had no such "associations." He said Hiss offered to leave Acheson's office if desired.

Acheson said he replied that he had "complete confidence" in Hiss and considered the matter closed.

Feinberg Presents Bill to Regulate Comic Books' Sale

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 13 (AP)—Senate Majority Leader Benjamin F. Feinberg introduced legislation today to regulate the publication, distribution and sale of comic books in New York state.

The bill would create a new "comic book division" in the State Education Department. It would review all comic books intended for publication or distribution in the state and either grant or deny a permit.

Publishers or distributors of the book then would be required to include a statement on the title page indicating whether or not approval had been received.

Permits would be denied if the book were considered "obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy, indecent, immoral or disgusting."

The Plattsburgh Republican's measure was a follow-up of a statement he made last November that he intended to deal "effectively" with undesirable comic books.

He said at that time that such books "unquestionably had been a contributing factor to the rising wave of juvenile delinquency."

James F. Fitzpatrick, Republican assemblyman from Plattsburgh, announced he would sponsor a companion measure in the Assembly tomorrow.

The legislative move comes on the heels of efforts by several cities and counties, and school, church and other groups in the state to restrict the sale and distribution of undesirable comic books.

In December the Albany county district attorney notified wholesalers of 62 comic books that in his opinion they were violating the penal law which prohibits publication and distribution of lewd and indecent literature.

He threatened to take the matter to the courts if the distribution were continued.

In Schenectady county, the district attorney has announced that he will investigate, "and if necessary prosecute" distributors of comic books if complaints are lodged against them.

men named. No answer at all so far. And after saying he was disturbed he pulled the rug from under himself to make sure he hadn't said anything that anyone could sink a tooth into. That's Harvard Law for you, where old Weenie carved the motto: "To derive plain meanings from plain words is pernicious oversimplification."

But all right. Take Berle at his word about Nathan Witt. The pair of them were Happy Hot Dogs of the Frankfurter cult, so you can be sure he knows his man. Yes, it's true that Witt was understood to be as Red as a firecracker. He was known as the man who controlled the board during the bloody anarchy of the early thirties which gave birth to the misbegotten C.I.O. with all its terror and its continuing corruption of the American system of life. But Berle never said so. Yet, he is an officer of the court, isn't he? He is a citizen, supposed to be patriotic, isn't he? Well, then, what did he ever do to inform the public, to denounce Witt's "well-known sympathies" and protect the country against him?

Not a thing. Nothing. He just thought it was amusing, that's all. Quaint fellow, Witt. Roguish!

But let Berle dribble along: "I looked into the then position of the Hiss boys first."

He calls these twirps boys although Alger is 44 and the other is 42. They certainly get a lot of mileage out of adolescence up at Harvard Law.

Must quit interrupting the mugs. I am acting like that sort of guy with the fish at Harrison street.

Now remember, the question was, what did he do?

"A—(By Mr. Berle)—According to my recollection, neither of them (the twirps) had any position that amounted to very much in the State Department. My recollection is that at that time Alger Hiss was doing some relatively unimportant work in, I think, the legal department, and I have forgotten what Donald was doing, but neither was in a position where he either had access to confidential information or where he had much to do with policy, so for the moment there was no immediate danger."

"Further the idea that the Hiss boys and Nat Witt were going to take over the United States government didn't strike me as any immediate danger."

Still no answer, you observe, and the fourflusher hasn't really got his mouth open yet. And note how he cuts the ground from under himself with the stuff about "my recollection" and "I think" and "I have forgotten" and "anyway it was all very harmless at worst."

But here we go again:

"I checked on the two Hiss boys. Specifically I checked with Dean Acheson and later I checked when Acheson became the assistant secretary of state and Alger Hiss became his executive assistant. That to my knowledge was the first time when Alger Hiss would have been in a position to do anything effectively. Acheson said he had known the family of these two boys from childhood and could vouch for them absolutely. I further found that Mr. Justice Frankfurter would give them an exactly similar endorsement. You had therefore a chain of endorsements by the men for whom they worked, but reputable men, whether you agreed with them or not, and this seemed to negative any danger."

Remember now, Berle has just admitted before he goes into this dance of the dying swan that Chambers had told him the two Hiss children were preparing to go into the Communist underground in our government.

"Schematically, I believed that Chambers was telling the truth,"—and Berle dances back again—"telling the truth as he saw it, so I caused the department to establish very close relations with the F.B.I. A little later, a section was organized in the State Department known as the Foreign Activities Correlation Division. The name is meaningless and designedly so. Its business was to follow all of these various activities as they appeared in Washington and in respect of any group that might appear to be sympathetic either with the Communists or with the Nazi-Fascist point of view. I think a couple of weeks ago it was merged with the Security Division or some similar section in the State Department. We tried to trace out the groups which endeavored to have representation through any individuals in Washington and we endeavored to reach back to see whether the Communist apparatus was beginning to try to activate the foreign language groups in the United States."

Had enough? How the United States Government fell into the hands of these Harvard myopole dancers you will never find out from any of them without the aid of the likes of my old hero of Harrison street. But that is Harvard law to

Cain Takes Part In Tour of Plant

Nineteen Presbyterian ministers, including the Rev. William Cannon Cain of 85 Wurts street, this city, pastor of the Rondout Presbyterian Church, today took part in one of a series of unique industrial plant tours at the American Type Founders works in Elizabeth, N. J.

Mr. Cain has been in New York city attending the Presbyterian Institute of Industrial Relations, and in connection with his studies, he and others at the institute were invited by Thomas Roy Jones, president of A.T.F., to spend a day at the American Type Founders works in Elizabeth, N. J.

Facing the fact that the United States' population is steadily moving to the cities, the Presbyterian Church established its Industrial Relations Institute to give its leaders training, on a gradual level, that will meet the particular needs of the church in city and industrial areas, according to the Rev. Marshall L. Scott, dean of the institute. The training is supplementary to that given in colleges and theological seminaries.

Swiss Jet Car
Gstaad, Switzerland (AP)—A Swiss engineer has invented a jet-propelled automobile. A small-scale experimental model recently achieved speeds up to 35 m.p.h. during test runs on the airfield here. The designer, Hans Berger, of Thun, says his first full-scale experimental car will have a maximum speed of 72 m.p.h. The first test model is only six feet long and three feet wide. Its motive power is supplied entirely by a small jet engine in the rear, which expels gas and air under high pressure and pushes the car forward. The car has no drive shaft, clutch, gears or differential.

Scott Expected To Continue Role As GOP Chairman

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—Harry Darby, Kansas committeeman, said today he expects Rep. Hugh D. Scott, Jr., to continue as Republican national chairman.

Darby, himself mentioned as a possible candidate to oppose Scott at the party committee meeting in Omaha January 25 and 26, said he isn't interested in running for the job.

The Kansas committeeman made it plain, however, that he hopes Scott will act as a free agent in the chairmanship, without any favoritism toward friends of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the defeated G.O.P. presidential nominee.

Scott already has said he regards himself as not bound to any potential presidential candidate, since he accepts at face value Dewey's announcement that he isn't going to run for the presidency again.

The decision of Darby not to oppose Scott at the forthcoming national committee meeting was a blow to the movement to oust the national chairman.

The movement was started originally in a call by Clarence Budington Kelland, Republican national committeeman from Arizona, for an overturn of the leadership which lost the November election.

Although some committee members have been saying that the group ought to elect one of its own as chairman, Scott has countered with the assertion that he was chosen for a four-year term at the Philadelphia convention in June and doesn't intend to give up the job without a fight.

Darby, who supported Dewey's bid for the G.O.P. nomination as far back as 1940, said he doesn't think Scott can be blamed for the campaign defeat, since direction of the drive was taken out of his hands by Dewey's friends, headed by Herbert Brownell, Jr.

Scott's choice of an executive committee of 15 members may have a direct bearing on his bid to retain the leadership.

The national chairman has said he expects to name members representative of every geographical and policy faction in the party. If he is successful in obtaining a group that meets with general approval of the national committee at the Omaha meeting, the question of his ouster may never be brought up.

To Protect Firemen

Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 13 (AP)—Officers and directors of the New York State Fire Chiefs' Association have voted to ask Congress for legislation to provide workmen's compensation for firemen injured fighting fires on federal property. The action was taken yesterday at the group's mid-winter meeting. Chief Henry F. Drake of Clinton's Corners said volunteer firemen in some areas had refused to fight fires on federal property because they were not protected. The executive group opposed a proposal of the New York city administration to take the appointment of the fire chief out of the civil service category. "Such action would destroy the merit system," they maintained.

Einstein Theory

New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—Dr. Albert Einstein, scheduled to leave a Brooklyn hospital today, says there is no just reason for "the hostile attitude that exists between the East and the West."

Hoornbeek Gets Prize For 4-H Dairy Progress

Roger Hoornbeek of Stony Ridge was the winner of the first Joseph Brill award of a heifer calf to the boy or girl enrolled in Ulster County 4-H dairy work showing the most progress during the year, it was announced by Edmund R. Bower, county 4-H Club agent.

The heifer calf was awarded to Hoornbeek for his work during 1948. The award, planned to be an annual event, was set up this year by Joseph Brill of Stony Ridge, himself a former 4-H member.

Brill began his purebred herd in 1933 with the help of Miss Margaret Latimer, acting 4-H Club agent, and John Schoor-maker of Accord. In 1939, Brill was New York State 4-H Holstein champion boy.

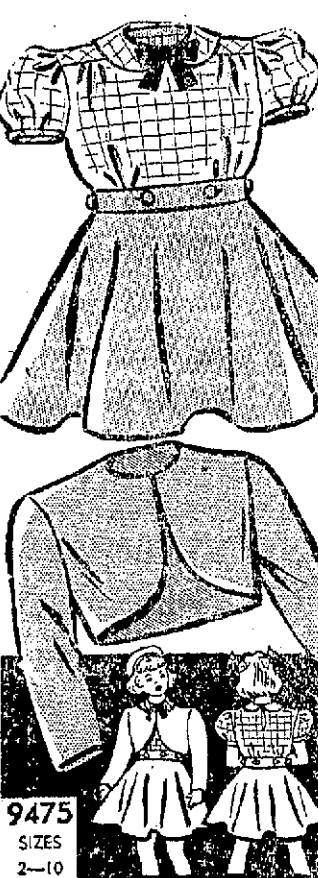

Einstein, most noted for his work in atomic fission and for development of the theory of relativity, said that "where there is no will there is no way" to find world peace. He said the United Nations inability so far to solve the Palestine problem is weakening its authority.

Plenty of Work for Congress

The new Congress won't have much time to loaf, judging by the number of bills it must pass upon. On opening day a record 612 bills and resolutions was introduced in the House. Capitol officials had to work late at night to record them all. Here Clarence E. Young, of Appleton City, Mo., assistant bill clerk of the House, enters the list.

Joseph Declares Jews Won't Yield To Foreign Desires

Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 13 (AP)—Dr. Bernard Joseph, military governor of Jerusalem, said today the 90,000 Jews in the new section of the city "will never give up Jerusalem to please the desires of foreign states."

Joseph, who flew to the United States to address the 10th annual conference of the United Jewish Appeal, said "Our sacrifice for the city has made it holy to us in a new sense."

He told 1,200 delegates to the conference the Israeli government will consider internationalization of the old section of Jerusalem because "we recognize the special interests of world Christianity and of Islam in their holy places."

The old city, which is slightly more than a half-mile square, now is held by the Arab Legion, Joseph said.

The Israeli government considers the Negev desert its own and looks forward to making it a fertile land, Joseph said.

"We have won with the gun, now you in America must make it possible for us to win with the plough and the water pipe," he said.

During the day the conference is expected to arrive at a quota for the U.J.A. drive for funds in 1949.

Herman L. Weisman of New York, acting chairman of the United Jewish Appeal, has asked the conference for $29,000,000 to finance projects in Israel. The U.J.A. is one of three major agencies of the U.J.A. How much will be allocated to Israel projects will be determined in the quota.

Joseph said the Israeli government plans an irrigation program for the Negev desert that contemplates an expenditure of $200,000,000. He said 25 Jewish settlements now exist in the desert. It is planned to settle 500,000 Jews in the area in the next ten years, Joseph said.

As outlined yesterday, the 1949 financial needs of the three agencies of the U.J.A. have been set at almost $373,000,000.

Cordts Hose Co. Seeks to Obtain Old Engine No. 3

In the following communication to the Board of Fire Commissioners, Cordts Hose Company requests old Engine No. 3 be transferred from the Central Station to their firehouse:

John N. Cordts, Hose Co. No. 8,
211 Delaware avenue,
Kingston, N. Y.

January 11, 1949
Board of Fire Commissioners
Central Fire Station
Kingston, N. Y.

Gentlemen:
Cordts Hose Co. hereby requests your kind consideration and complete understanding in the matter of the disposition of old Engine No. 3.

Mostly request that this equipment be transferred to us in the interest of better protection for the territory we now serve.

As far back as Feb. 1948 we made a similar request (copy of letter enclosed) as a means of bettering our service and as a second choice if a new chemical truck could not be provided for Cordts Hose Co.

We need not remind you and yet feel that we must in order to justify our request, that we really need this equipment to provide better protection for approximately 50 miles of streets, including the following: Esso Standard Oil Co., R. K. Ballard Fuel Oil Co., Bogart Fuel Oil Co., Cities Service, Sinclair Refining Co., Central Hudson Gas House, Cornell shops and also the brickyards.

As you know on first call Cordts Hose covers 20 boxes which includes 4 schools and 2 children's homes. On a majority of second calls we report to Central Station and act in the same capacity as the paid department and we feel that we would be greatly handicapped without proper equipment at such a time.

Since there are 2 pumpers available above the West Shore crossing and only one below besides the equipment at the Central Station we feel justified in making this request.

Better protection of the above mentioned places is surely of prime importance not only to this one district but also to every Kingston taxpayer. A preventable loss by fire at any one of these places would be a severe blow to the economy of this city. Should it occur because of a lack of proper equipment at the right time and place, it would be a direct and just criticism of the service we are trying to provide. We trust that you will give us every possible consideration when you discuss this proposition.

Thanking you, we are Respectfully yours,
SPENCER MYERS,
Foreman,
GUS M. LOVY,
Secretary.

Woodstock Vols Re-elect Simmons

Woodstock, Jan. 13—Birge Simmons, Hearsby, was re-elected president of the Woodstock Volunteer Firemen's Association on Monday evening at the annual meeting in the firehouse. Others re-elected were Montona DeWitt, vice-president; Herbert Wyman, secretary; Marvin Doremus, treasurer; Reginald Lupo, chief; George Hays, first assistant to chief; and Perry Franklin, second chief assistant. The Rev. Harvey J. Todd was named chaplain and the Rev. Charles O. Bennett, assistant chaplain.

It was deemed advisable that a number of the firemen be familiar with the use of the inhalator and in line with this idea, a group of the men will be given instruction by Marvin Doremus at the firehouse, beginning next Monday evening.

Another matter of importance to the volunteers was the special training course in fire-fighting, etc., which will be given throughout the county in the near future. It was learned that the county will be set up into four districts for this training which will be given by deputy chiefs from Kingston following their attendance at special lectures to be held in Rochester beginning January 16. Reginald Lupo was named assistant coordinator for the Woodstock district which it is expected will include Phoenixia, Saugerette, Pine Hill, and other localities in the area.

Six applicants were approved for membership in the association. They were Roger Chubb, the Rev. Charles O. Bennett, Roger Graessner, Ernie Baric, Albert Montgomery and Teddy Esherman.

Herbert Wyman was named as delegate to represent the Woodstock group at the annual county convention.

A social period followed the business meeting when entertainment was provided and a supper served.

Country Club Makes Plans Against Future Floods

Woodstock, Jan. 13—A bulldozing project has been under way at the Woodstock Country Club this week to fill in the soil washed away by the recent rains. This work was deemed necessary without delay by the Woodstock Properties, Inc., winter committee which met Sunday afternoon to discuss ways and means of protecting the Country Club property from further damage in the event of additional high waters during the winter and spring seasons.

Holly B. Cantline, George Neher and Frank Benson, members of the winter committee, made their visit after a thorough inspection of the property. They also believe it will be necessary to build a four foot retaining wall along the Sawkill creek to prevent serious damage, in the event of future storms, to the rear of the club house. The creek at that point it was said rose about 32 inches during the recent floods.

Because of the expense involved in the recommended undertaking, it was learned, the matter will be held in abeyance until the entire committee can be present. Most of its members are away from Woodstock during the winter months. The committee includes Mrs. George Bellows, Anthony J. DeLisio, Earl Winslow, Edward Coffey, Allen Warshaw, Peter Whitehead, Holly Cantline, George Neher and Frank Benson.

Winter Concerts To Resume Soon; Artists Selected

Woodstock, Jan. 13—For the first time in about 25 years, winter concerts will be resumed in Woodstock. The first in the series will be given Sunday, February 6, at 3:30 p. m. in the Town Hall with Ivo Carroll, pianist; Dr. Hans Cohn, cellist; and Frank McLe, violinist, as guest artists.

As each summer concert season draws to a close, one hears the familiar "Isn't it too bad we can't have concerts during the winter months when there aren't so many other things going on." Many of the winter months in Woodstock during the winter months have finally prevailed upon the resident musicians to satisfy the public demand and are enthusiastically looking forward to the first of the concert series, the program for which will be announced later.

Dancer Vicki Evans Is Out on $2,500 Bail

New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—Dancer Vicki Evans was free in $2,500 bail today following her arrest as a California fugitive.

Her attorney, Martin Benjamin, says she intends to fight removal to California where she faces a narcotics possession charge. She is to appear in felony court today.

The 23-year-old blonde failed to appear for trial Monday in a Los Angeles court that convicted three other defendants, including actor Robert Mitchum, of conspiring to possess narcotics.

Detectives, acting on a California bench warrant, picked up Miss Evans at her hotel here yesterday. She was taken to the women's lockup in the West 30th street police station.

Later her attorney arranged for her release in bail.

Before her arrest, Miss Evans had said she was anxious to return to California to "clear my name," but had no funds for the trip.

However, her attorney said he had telegraphed the Los Angeles sheriff's office that his client will fight extradition.

Jack LaRue to Head Broadway Vaudeville Show

Jack LaRue, noted stage and screen actor, and recent guest star on the Milton Berle television show, will appear "in person" at the Broadway Theatre Friday and Saturday, January 14 and 15, as headliner on a five-act professional vaudeville unsmilingly studied with "names" in the entertainment field.

LaRue, long a top star on Broadway and in Hollywood where he generally portrayed "bad men" and "tough guys," appears with his sister, Emily, and Clarence Stroud, half of the famous Stroud Twins act of radio and screen. Clarence, until recently joining LaRue's act, enjoyed top comedy billing with his brother, Claude.

Also on the show will be Doraine and Ellis, soprano Doraine Renard and lyric tenor Ellis Lucas, who have featured singing roles in the Ice Follies, in Jerome Kern's "Showboat," and with the St. Louis Civic Opera Company. LaRue, who will abandon his movie villainy in his stage stint, will appear at the matinee and two evening shows. The accompanying screen attraction will be "Trouble Preferred," plus a special afternoon film "Living in a Big Way."

A native New Yorker of Italian extraction—his real name is Caspare Biondello—LaRue's first job was as an apprentice piano tuner. That lasted until he heard the old Empire Theatre on Broadway wanted extras for the show "Blood and Sand." A succession of bit parts as a Spanish-type extra followed, until he got his first big role as "Juarez" opposite a rising young actress named Mae West in a play called "Diamond Lil"—the same show Miss West is now so successfully reviving. After that a string of stage hits followed, including "Crime," "Fiesta" and "Midnight." It was in the latter that Howard Hughes, now president of R.K.O. Pictures, saw him and took him to Hollywood.

His first movie part was as a priest in Ernest Hemingway's "Farewell to Arms" with Gary Cooper and Helen Hayes. Then followed "The Story of Temple Drake" opposite Miriam Hopkins, which established him on the screen as a "bad man." Since then he has appeared in just short of 150 films.

Currently awaiting release is his newest film "No Orchids for Miss Blandish," a British-made picture in which he plays, naturally, an American gangster.

Clarence Stroud, who precedes LaRue on the stage, teams up with Bobby Martin, a pretty brunette, in a fast-paced routine consisting mainly of his wise-cracking patter, and comedy duet with Miss Martin.

Doraine and Ellis, a good looking couple who are equally at home in the semi-classical as well as popular song fields, are billed as "Romance in Song." With the Ice Follies and St. Louis Civic Opera, they have sung leading roles in Oscar Strauss' "Chocolate Soldier" and Victor Herbert's "Sweetheart."

Completing the bill will be Chet Clark, boogie-woogie harmonica player who appeared recently on the Arthur Godfrey "Talent Quest" television show, and the Wallin Twins, pretty young girl dancers who have done extensive work with U.S.O. and camp shows.

The smallest swifts, swiftlets, produce the edible birds' nests, prized among the Chinese for making soup.

Also on the show will be Doraine and Ellis, soprano Doraine Renard and lyric tenor Ellis Lucas, who have featured singing roles in the Ice Follies, in Jerome Kern's "Showboat," and with the St. Louis Civic Opera Company. LaRue, who will abandon his movie villainy in his stage stint, will appear at the matinee and two evening shows. The accompanying screen attraction will be "Trouble Preferred," plus a special afternoon film "Living in a Big Way."

A native New Yorker of Italian extraction—his real name is Caspare Biondello—LaRue's first job was as an apprentice piano tuner. That lasted until he heard the old Empire Theatre on Broadway wanted extras for the show "Blood and Sand." A succession of bit parts as a Spanish-type extra followed, until he got his first big role as "Juarez" opposite a rising young actress named Mae West in a play called "Diamond Lil"—the same show Miss West is now so successfully reviving. After that a string of stage hits followed, including "Crime," "Fiesta" and "Midnight." It was in the latter that Howard Hughes, now president of R.K.O. Pictures, saw him and took him to Hollywood.

His first movie part was as a priest in Ernest Hemingway's "Farewell to Arms" with Gary Cooper and Helen Hayes. Then followed "The Story of Temple Drake" opposite Miriam Hopkins, which established him on the screen as a "bad man." Since then he has appeared in just short of 150 films.

Currently awaiting release is his newest film "No Orchids for Miss Blandish," a British-made picture in which he plays, naturally, an American gangster.

Clarence Stroud, who precedes LaRue on the stage, teams up with Bobby Martin, a pretty brunette, in a fast-paced routine consisting mainly of his wise-cracking patter, and comedy duet with Miss Martin.

Doraine and Ellis, a good looking couple who are equally at home in the semi-classical as well as popular song fields, are billed as "Romance in Song." With the Ice Follies and St. Louis Civic Opera, they have sung leading roles in Oscar Strauss' "Chocolate Soldier" and Victor Herbert's "Sweetheart."

Completing the bill will be Chet Clark, boogie-woogie harmonica player who appeared recently on the Arthur Godfrey "Talent Quest" television show, and the Wallin Twins, pretty young girl dancers who have done extensive work with U.S.O. and camp shows.

The smallest swifts, swiftlets, produce the edible birds' nests, prized among the Chinese for making soup.

LaRue, long a top star on Broadway and in Hollywood where he generally portrayed "bad men" and "tough guys," appears with his sister, Emily, and Clarence Stroud, half of the famous Stroud Twins act of radio and screen. Clarence, until recently joining LaRue's act, enjoyed top comedy billing with his brother, Claude.

Bills Proposed in Legislature

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 13 (AP)—Senator Thomas C. Desmond submitted to the Legislature today two constitutional amendments he said were aimed at preventing "back room appointments to high court posts."

The amendments introduced by the Newburgh Republican would eliminate the present party convention system of selecting candidates for election to the Supreme Court.

One amendment would substitute the so-called "Missouri Plan" for selection of Supreme Court justices.

The other proposal would allow the voters of each judicial district to choose one of seven suggested alternative methods.

His aim, Desmond declared, was "to prevent boss-controlled law courts or mediocre political hacks from ascending to judicial office."

The "Missouri Plan" would establish a seven-man judicial commission in each judicial district. It would recommend three nominees to the governor for appointment to the Supreme Court bench. The governor would be obliged to appoint one of the three.

After a year on the bench the name of the justice would be presented to the voters for confirmation or rejection.

If the appointee were rejected, the governor would make another appointment from three more names submitted to him. This appointee would be voted on.

The process would continue until a justice was accepted.

In a statement accompanying his amendments Desmond declared:

"Since the governor's appointive will pass finally before the voters under no party emblem and against no opposing candidate, he can be judged by voters on his merits alone."

Desmond's other amendment would provide seven alternative methods for selecting candidates, one or more of which would be submitted to the voters of each judicial district.

The proposals:

1. Election by voters of the district after nomination at a primary election.

2. Election by voters, with an opportunity for the governor to name the first candidate.

3. Appointment by the governor and confirmation by the Senate, subject to later confirmation by the voters.

4. Appointment by the governor from a list submitted to him by a non-partisan judicial commission, subject to confirmation by voters of the district. (The Missouri Plan).

5. Appointment by the governor and approval by a non-partisan judicial commission, subject to confirmation by the voters.

6. Appointment by the governor for a full term unless the Senate disapproves or fails to confirm such appointment.

7. Appointment by the Appellate Division of a justice who has served satisfactorily as a judge of a lower court of record. (The merit system).

Willie Howard, Stage Comedian Dies at 62

New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—Willie Howard, 62, one of America's top stage comedians, died yesterday of a liver ailment.

He had played leading roles in major musical comedies and revues for more than 35 years.

His last show was "Along Fifth Avenue," which he left last Dec. 8.

He had been ill for some time but insisted he could carry on his role at night and undergo treatment during the day. He died in Polytechnic Hospital.

For many years, he teamed with his older brother, Eugene Howard, in stage comedies, girl shows and on the vaudeville stage.

A small man, Willie served up his comic mischief with sly glance and philosophical shrug. He was a master of mimicry. He burlesqued grand opera in some of his best known skits. In others, he used French and Russian accents.

George White, many of whose "Scandals" starred Willie, once said of him: "Anybody who don't like Willie, don't like children."

Born in Neustadt, Germany, Willie grew up in New York City's teeming lower East Side.

His more recent shows included "Crazy With The Heat," "My Dear Public," "The Show Is On" and "Star and Garter."

Hirohito Was Protected By Order of U.S. Staff Chiefs

Tokyo, Jan. 13 (AP)—Emperor Hirohito escaped prosecution as a war criminal on orders of the United States joint chiefs of staff. Copies of the order are available here. The order, a part of the directive to Gen. Douglas MacArthur to set up the international tribunal, which convicted Hirohito and 24 other Japanese war leaders, was issued in January, 1946.

At first it was classed as top secret. Later it was graded down to allow defense attorneys for the 25 Class A-A Japanese war criminals to use it in their appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Specifically it prohibited prosecution of the emperor "pending receipt of a further directive." Reliable sources said no further directive ever was received by MacArthur.

These sources said the decision not to prosecute Hirohito, who was commander in chief of Japan's armed forces, came from a U. S. "governmental level," which was not further identified. The chiefs of staff then issued the order. At that time the Far Eastern Commission had not been formed as an advisory body on policy for the occupation.

The order resulted in some delicate legal light rope walking acts by the prosecution in the top war criminals trial. The prosecutor could not state publicly that the emperor had been granted amnesty. At the same time almost every avenue of evidence concerning military plans led directly up a chain of command to the emperor.

Trial evidence showed that ident, Sir William Webb of Australia, noted the many trials of Hirohito which were never followed up by the prosecution.

Sir William pointedly called Chief Prosecutor Joseph B. Keenan's attention to the fact that command responsibility rested with the emperor. Keenan answered that it was the prosecution's theory that the emperor had been held in the power of "gangsters." Sir William remained dissatisfied and since his return to Australia has stated publicly that he thought Hirohito should have been prosecuted as a war criminal.

Japanese know the position of the emperor in the chain of command so well that even to this day speculation continues that he wants to abdicate.

Body Is Found
New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—The body of a woman who gave her name as Ruth Sussman, of 1524 New Haven avenue, Far Rockaway, Queens, at the Hotel Whitehall, 250 West 100th street, was found outside the hotel at 5 a. m. today after she apparently fell or jumped from her room on the 15th floor, police reported. The woman, about 30 years old, registered at the hotel January 4. The window of her room had been left open. No notes were left.

23 Horses Die
In Saratoga Fire

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Jan. 13 (AP)—Twenty-three harness horses died today in a fire that leveled a winter stable at Saratoga Raceway.

Over-all loss estimated at $150,000. Origin of the fire was not determined immediately.

Some of the best known pacers and trotters in the east perished in the blaze. Among them were Silverspur, a pacer and heart of Gold, a trotter. Both had a record of 2:05 for the mile on the raceway's half-mile track.

Only one horse, a two-year-old pacer owned by Miss Hurla Sonnenburg of Stonington, Conn., escaped.

The fire broke out about 4:20 a. m. It was discovered by Wesley Cromwell of Saratoga Springs, who, with Ralph Blodgett of Greenfield, Mass., was sleeping at the end of the wooden building just touched by the flames.

Cromwell, awakened by smoke, aroused Blodgett, then hastened through the barn opening stall gates. He was driven out by smoke three times.

Twelve of the horses destroyed were trained by Aubrey S. Rodney and 11 by Bill Berry, both of Saratoga Springs.

Cromwell and Blodgett were caretakers for Rodney and Berry, respectively.

Leveled in 40 Minutes
The wooden structure, built last summer, was leveled in 40 minutes. When firemen arrived, more than one-third of the structure was in flames.

Rodney placed a value of $64,000 on the horses in his charge. Berry estimated that the horses he trained were worth $54,500. Most of the horses lost in the fire were insured.

Frank Wiswall of Albany, raceway president, said the stable was constructed at a cost of $25,000. It was insured. The loss included more than $5,000 worth of equipment.

Among the horses trained by Berry were six owned by Dunbar Bostwick of Shelburne, Vt. These were valued at $35,000, including $10,000 for Chuck Scott, a three-year-old Hambletonian eligible.

Other well-known horses that died included Senator Stone and Earl's Spencer Volo, owned by Al K. Brain, Saratoga lawyer, and Adam's Apple, owned by C. H. Chickering of Westminster, Vt.

In partial color blindness only some colors seem gray.

Senate Gets Bill To Extend Rent Controls 27 Months

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Senate today got a bill to extend rent control for 27 months. It would ban any more 15 per cent "voluntary" rent increases and put thousands of dwellings back under controls.

In introducing the measure, Senator Myers (D.-Pa.) said it is designed "to close most of the loopholes . . . opened up by the 80th Congress in 1947-48." He added:

"The intent of the bill is to close the avenues of chiseling, arbitrary evictions, gray market practices in renting vacant properties, widespread violation of the law, and other slick tricks used by a small minority of landlords whose practices seriously undermine the whole rent control program and spread insecurity and fear among tenants."

Chairman Maybank (D.-S.C.) of the Senate Banking Committee has said the Myers measure may become the final bill on rent control. The present law will expire March 31.

Myers' bill would put back under rent control all new construction including dwellings rented since they were decontrolled. In some cases this might result in a roll back of rents because the housing expediter would have authority to set the ceiling.

Controls also would be established again over converted dwellings and permanent hotel accommodations, including apartment hotels.

The present law authorizes 15 per cent rent increases where tenants and landlords agree in exchange for a lease for a specified period banning any further rent hikes during that time. Such leases already negotiated would not be affected by Myers' bill but it would prohibit any new leases calling for higher rent.

The bill would restore to the federal government the right to regulate evictions. State laws now apply.

The measure would also let the housing expediter again sue violators of the rent law for triple damages and on criminal grounds.

$221,000 Action Opens in Court

An action for $221,000 has been instituted in Supreme Court by Mrs. Christine Roosa of 39 Taylor street, widow of Peter S. Roosa who died as a result of injuries suffered in a three-vehicle accident February, 1948, on Route 8W near the Neighborhood road, town of Ulster.

Mr. Roosa, an employee of the New York Telephone Company, suffered fatal injuries when his Chevrolet car being driven north on the Saugerties road, a tractor-trailer owned by Paul Roemer and operated by Samuel Silberman in a southerly direction and a Buick car operated by Ralph Hinderstein of Catskill, also going south struck an icy spot on the pavement.

Mrs. Roosa seeks to recover $200,000 for the death of her husband, $20,000 for pain and suffering which he is alleged to have had prior to his death several hours after the accident and $1,000 for loss of the Chevrolet car which he was operating. Roosa at the time of his death was 39 years of age and held a responsible position with the telephone company and commanded a good salary. Roosa was severely injured about the back when his car and the tractor-trailer collided. The Hinderstein car was not actually involved in the collision.

Paul Roemer, owner of the tractor-trailer, has not been served in the present action. N. LeVan Haver appears for the plaintiff and Hinderstein appears by Stanley Johnson of Newburgh. Silberman is represented by New York counsel.

At the time of the accident which happened around noon, the Roosa car was being operated northerly. Coming south was the Hinderstein car. On an icy pavement the Hinderstein car skidded and went into a snowbank along the road. The truck following allegedly in an effort to avoid an accident with the Hinderstein car, struck the ice and as a result collided with the northbound car of Roosa. Plaintiff alleges the two southbound cars were being operated in a careless and negligent manner and were responsible for the accident.

Roosa left in addition to his widow, two children 17 and 19 years of age.

The jury was selected Wednesday afternoon and after opening the case the trial was begun. Justice Harry E. Schirck, presiding justice, will hold a regular special term Friday, and if possible the case will be concluded before adjournment today.

During a recess of the court Wednesday, three negligence actions were settled. The actions were brought by Ella Di Stasi, Andrew Messina and Philip Messina against Ira Salkin. N. LeVan Haver for plaintiffs and James E. Carroll for defendant.

ernment can serve the people if its organization and administration is overhauled."

Some of the changes would require legislation by Congress, while others could be accomplished now by presidential order, Hoover said.

"But," he added, "many of the most important can probably be accomplished only if the Congress reenacts and broadens the power to initiate reorganization plans which it had previously granted to the President under an act which expired on March 31, 1948."

Check Your Rod, Old Man?

Ross Hancock, left, manager of a London theater, requires that all the roolins, tootin', two-gun shootin' London kids check their weapons before seeing American Wild West movies. A seven-year-old cowpoke hands over his shootin' iron. Hancock made the rule so the youngsters won't hurt themselves in excitement of the film.

More Work Slated For Saugerties

Certain machining and sub-assembly operations for the General Electric automatic washer will be added within the next few months to the wiring device production currently being engaged in by the Saugerties General Electric plant, it was disclosed today by Henry Sedlak, in charge of the local plant.

While the new operations will undoubtedly result in some increase in employment, plans for the character and amount of work to be transferred are not as yet sufficiently definite to predict the exact number involved and what proportion will be new.

General Electric started operations at the Saugerties plant in 1946, a war-time tenantry by RCA. The company's present lease expires March 31, 1951.

Farm Income High

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—A record high cash income to New York farmers in 1948 was reported today by the Agriculture Department. With December's returns still to be tallied, the department said, the January through November, 1948, total for New York stands at $576,202,000 compared to $501,241,000 reported for the 11-month period in 1947.

March of Dimes Starts Today Throughout Ulster County

Ulster county today starts its drive to collect funds for the fight on infantile paralysis and it is the hope of those in charge of the project that a representative figure will have been reached at the end of the campaign, January 31.

Mrs. William E. Powers of 192 Albany, avenue told a reporter, that as general chairman she and her committees will strive to raise a third more than last year's collections which totaled $13,600. "We need the contributions and cooperation of everybody," she said, "because the disease strikes more and more people each year. Those who are generous in giving to this cause can rightfully feel that they are helping combat one of the nation's greatest scourges."

Ball Slated 29th

Committees under the direction of Mrs. Powers are ready for the Great March of Dimes, and the annual ball scheduled for Saturday, the 29th, at Gisano's in Port Ewen, where Johnny Michaels and his band will play for the social event, featuring special entertainment. Attorney William Kelly is chairman of the ball. County Judge John M. Cashin and Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk will open the March of Dimes with a radio appeal, the judge being scheduled to talk tonight at 9:15, and the mayor tomorrow at the same time.

Addison Jones, city chairman, reported that coin boxes are being distributed throughout Kingston, and Raymond Rignall, principal of schools No. 8 and 6, has his plans completed for the city schools dimes collections. Robert W. Case, manager of Reade's Kingston Theatres, will see that all movie houses throughout the county have a plan for collections.

Township Chairmen

Township chairmen for the March of Dimes in Ulster county are: Saugerties, Mayor Frank Clum; Wawarsing, Tullihill MacDowell, assisted by Mrs. Marion Hartle and Mrs. Sadie Katz; Esopus, Mrs. Donald Swan; Denning and Kerhonkson, William Joyce and William Newkirk; Gardiner, Myron Wells; Hurley, Mrs. Wesley O'Brien; Town of Kingston, Mrs. Thomas Roach; Lloyd, U. P. Decker; Marbletown, Miss Marguerite Quick; Marlborough, Edward Carpenter; New Paltz, Mrs. Raymond Morris and Miss Emma G. W. Pratt; Plattekill, Edward Hartney; Olive, Harold Wilkins; Rosendale, Mrs. Stephen Huben; Shawangunk, James Moran; Shandaken, H. Victor Green; Ulster, Dan Van Wagenen; Woodstock, Allan D. Elwyn.

Raymond Garaghan, treasurer of the infantile paralysis committee for Ulster county, reported total expenditures for last year of $2,646.48. This went for nursing care, medicine, hospitalization, ambulance service, wheel chair, special shoes and braces. More than $8,000 was sent to the national foundation.

Trustees Re-elected At Library Meeting

Captain Andrew S. Hickey, U.S.N., Ret., Mrs. H.F. King and Mrs. R. B. Herrick were re-elected trustees for a three-year term by members of the Kingston Library Association at the annual meeting Tuesday night.

Election of officers, which is usually done by the trustees following the association meeting, was postponed until Tuesday evening, January 20, because there was no quorum of trustees present.

During the association meeting, at which there was one of the largest attendances in recent years, plans were discussed for enlarging the membership of the association and for improving and expanding library services and facilities.

Captain Hickey, the president, told the members that this year is the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Kingston Library. The library was begun in 1899 when 300 local women each donated one book, he said. Prior to the receiving of a Carnegie grant, the library was located in the building adjacent to the city hall, now used as the Water Department garage.

Captain Hickey said he would do further research into the early history of the local library, and it was indicated that a special program may be planned to commemorate the founding.

Polio Girl Calls

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—A Texan walked into President Truman's office today and flourished a couple of pearl handled pistols. But nobody was alarmed. The visitor was four-year-old Linda Brown of San Antonio, the 1949 March of Dimes poster girl. Her legs were paralyzed but she recovered after treatment provided by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. She planned to leave Washington later in the day for a tour of New York and other cities.

TOMATO SAUCE ADDS ZEST TO EGGS

Eggs poached in tomato sauce have new interest.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
SEA Staff Writer

Eggs are beginning to get more plentiful and prices are lower, too. Now is the time, therefore to use eggs more frequently in main dishes as well as for breakfast "as is." Remember—eggs are one of the best sources of first-class protein, just like meat, fowl, fish and cheese. Combine them with canned tomato sauce, chives, cheese, mushrooms.

Eggs Poached in Tomato Sauce (Serves 3)

Six eggs; 6 tablespoons canned tomato sauce; 1/2 teaspoon Tabasco sauce; if desired, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce; 1 tablespoon chopped parsley; 4 tablespoons melted butter. Mix sauce and parsley. Melt butter in frying pan, add sauce and parsley. When hot, drop in eggs and cook (as for poaching) very slowly until done to desired consistency. Taste carefully with sauce while cooking. Serve on rounds of hot toast.

This egg casserole makes a fine dinner main dish for even the justests eaters.

Egg Casserole (Serves 6)

Six hard-cooked eggs; 1 can small shrimp; 1 (3 ounce) can broiled in butter mushrooms; 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine; 4 tablespoons flour; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1/2 cup milk; 1/2 cup canned tomato sauce; 1/3 cup grated American cheese; 1 teaspoon grated onion or minced chives.

Butter casserole. Cut eggs in half and remove yolks. Mash and season with salt, pepper, pinch of mustard and a little canned tomato sauce. Stuff back into whites and arrange in bottom of casserole. Lay shrimp on top of eggs.

SHOKAN

Shokan, Jan. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dewitt of Kingston were callers in the village Saturday. Joe, a veteran of the Austrian border campaign, was brought up in Shokan on the present Clarke Puffer place along the north reservoir boulevard.

Mrs. Elen Green of Ashokan has received a letter from her lifelong friend, Addie Beldin, a native of the South Hollow section of Olive who has made her home in Flint, Mich., for many years. Mrs. Beldin, the former Addie Rogers, remains in good health at the age of 81 years and is now spending some time with her children and grandchildren in the Flint area.

Ernest Hous, Ashokan basketball star and Marine Corps veteran, travels daily by bus to his duties in the drafting department of the Briel engineering plant in uptown Kingston.

Arlington Rose of Woodstock and Walter Lasher of Kingston were numbered among the visitors calling in the hub of the reservoir country Monday.

Birthdays on Wednesday, January 13, include that of Harry Markle, one of four children of Homer and Julia Markle of "Twin Maples." Shokan, Harry, a resident of Bedford, Ohio, lived as a boy in Glen Cove, L. I.; he attended the high school there and also spent considerable time in Shokan at the Markle place which has been in the family for more than a century. He is married, has grown children, and has long been associated with the office staff of the Hoe Printing Press Co.

Durward B. Osborn, who died recently in Worcester, is well remembered by a number of the older residents of this section where he resided in younger life. His early home here was along the East Butte road on what is now a part of the Winchell farm. Durwood's father, Samuel W. Osborn, was a Wesleyan Methodist preacher, and several members of the family lie in the family burying-ground on the old home place here.

Pops Up Salad

Finely grated onion pops up into salad or cole slaw. Add it, too, to a salad of lettuce, watercress, and escarole or romaine.

Delicious Dressing

An especially delicious dressing for hearts of lettuce is one made of French dressing to which hard-cooked egg, finely diced beet, green pepper, celery and olives are added. If desired, these ingredients may be added to mayonnaise along with a few tablespoons of chili sauce.

Cornbread Leftovers

Leftover squares of cornbread can be put to good use if they are split and spread with a mixture of grated yellow cheese, finely minced green pepper, finely grated onion, and chopped green olives; moisten the cheese mixture with a little mayonnaise and broil slowly until lightly browned.

Hot Cooked Cereal

Hot cooked cereal may be served with a square of butter or margarine instead of the usual milk or cream.

3 Men Charged With Attacking Woman on Guam

Guam, Jan. 13 (AP)—Three Negro U. S. Air Force men were charged today with raping pretty Ruth Farnsworth, former W.A.C., and leaving her unconscious in the jungle to die.

A lie detector and a recovered smock broke the month-old mystery.

The American governor of Guam identified the accused as: Pvt. Calvin Dennis, 26, of 148 West All Saints street, Frederick, Md.

Pvt. Herman Dennis, 20, of 832 Blake street, Indianapolis (in relative at that address said Dennis enlisted from there but actually lived at Belton, Tex.)

Staff Sgt. Robert W. Burns, 32, of 2824 North Lacey street, Spokane, Wash.

Calvin and Herman are brothers. The three are accused of kidnapping, rape and murder.

Miss Farnsworth, 27, of San Francisco, was seized last December 11 in a jade shop where she was working part time so she could buy a trousseau for her marriage next April to a marine. She was knocked unconscious, carried out to a jungle and raped. A searching party of soldiers and marines found her there 12 hours later. She died December 13 without recovering consciousness.

Lt. Cmdr. James T. Hackett, assistant chief of Guam police, said the brothers confessed their part in the crime after a lie detector trapped Herman.

Troop Is Found
Then, Hackett said, Miss Farnsworth's trock was found in a weapons carrier of which Calvin Dennis was the driver. The trock was under the seat. Hackett, a Chicago police lieutenant on leave with the navy, said Herman Dennis later led officers to a point near the jungle spot where Miss Farnsworth's sandals previously had been found.

There, after crying out not to be asked to go further, Herman reenacted the crime, Hackett asserted.

Fifteen men were held for questioning when Al Riedel, an inspector of the Berkeley, Calif., police force, arrived recently with a lie detector.

Hackett said the detector was used on five men. The fifth, Herman Dennis, then was subjected to questioning until he confessed and implicated his brother, Hackett added.

Woman Had Complained
Hackett said gift articles reserved by the trio at the jade shop but not paid for led to their original detention in the case.

After questioning, however, they were released. Hackett said Miss Farnsworth had complained to the jade shop manager of the attitude displayed by the Negroes during visits and for several weeks the manager and assistant manager took turns staying at the shop with her. She was alone the night of the crime.

Miss Farnsworth, a navy civil service employee, was engaged to wed Marine Staff Sgt. Sterlin McGinnis, of Bell Center, Ohio, a veteran of three Pacific campaigns. He accompanied her body to San Francisco last week for burial. Officials said Burns had attended Columbia University, New York city, for three years.

Kaiser-Frazer Cut In Production Is Ordered by Firm

Detroit, Jan. 13 (AP)—Kaiser-Frazer Corp. today ordered a production cut at which it had hinted earlier in a complaint against credit restrictions.

The automobile company announced a "temporary reduction," effective next week, and said its action was caused by the government's anti-inflation limitations on installment buying.

Earlier this week Kaiser-Frazer said the restrictions were cutting into its car sales and threatening a "spiral of unemployment" in the automobile industry.

On the surface, at least, K-F was alone with this point of view in the industry.

At the time of K-F's original complaint most other car manufacturers said they had experienced no substantial patronage loss.

The extent of Kaiser-Frazer's reduction was not made clear in today's statement.

However, K-F previously said it might reduce daily output from 675 cars to around 400 units. This would mean a layoff of about 3500 workers or shorter hours for its full force of 15,000.

K-F's announcement quoted Edgar F. Kaiser, vice president and general manager, in criticism of the Federal Reserve Board's credit restrictions.

The restrictions, Kaiser said, "arbitrarily bar the purchase of a medium-priced car by approximately 86 per cent of the American public."

About four months ago the Federal Reserve Board revived its wartime Regulation "W" which limited time payments. A car buyer now must complete an installment purchase within 15 to 18 months. Previously he had 24 to 30 months.

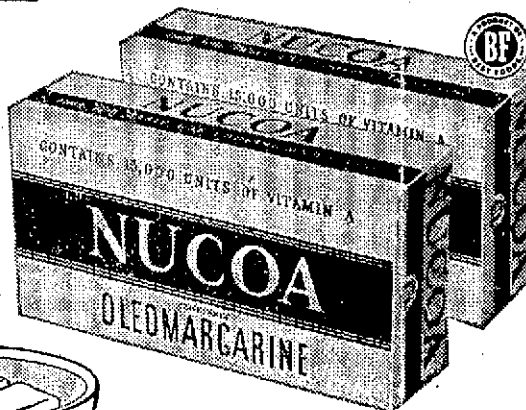

True! NO TRICK-PACKAGE COST TACKED ONTO NUCOA... YOU PAY ONLY FOR QUALITY...

(And you can "bowl-mix" two pounds together as quickly as one!)

Experienced housewives from Maine to California tell us:

The real way to save money and time is to let one trip to the store, one quick "bowl-mix," give you two pounds of delicious Nucoa ready to serve. This way you do the coloring job half as often, and it's twice as quick as "squeeze mixing" one at a time!

Of course, what you—and we—hope, is that SOON you won't have to color margarine at all. Until then, we promise that not one penny of trick-package cost will be added to Nucoa. Your grocer will continue to have this top-quality margarine at modest price, ready for you to "bowl-mix" the shade of yellow you like and mold as you please for attractive servings.

Yellow Nucoa available now in states whose laws permit sale of colored margarine. Here's hoping that SOON the law will let you have yellow Nucoa everywhere—and at no extra cost to you for Federal and state taxes and license fees.

Agudas Achim Women Hear National President at Membership Reception in Hall

With approximately 150 women attending the membership reception of Agudas Achim Women's Group Wednesday night at its social hall, Mrs. Moses Legis Isaacs, guest speaker, outlined the role of the sisterhood in the contemporary scene.

Mrs. Isaacs, who is national president of the Women's Branch of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations in America, said that if the sisterhoods supported religious education on the youth and adult level, these women could equip themselves to take successful places in the contemporary world as home makers who must always be strong spiritual guides as well as leaders in sisterhood circles and civil communities. She also noted that the program which links the local sisterhood to its national body it carried out can be the medium for bringing about the attainment of these necessary aims.

Modern Broadway Music

Studied by Musical Society

Broadway Music of the Twentieth Century was the topic for Musical Society Wednesday night as the group met with Mrs. A. Noble Graham, 21 Janet street. Miss Dorothea Groves, Mrs. Walter T. Tremper and Mrs. Clarence Wolfenstein were in charge.

The program was presented in the form of a radio skit and afterward to the surprise of the performers the program was played back from a recorder. Mrs. Wolfenstein took the part of the announcer and reviewed the lives and works of each of the composers.

In her introductory remarks Mrs. Wolfenstein noted that a composer of popular music has a far more difficult task to achieve permanence than any writer of serious music. He must depend for one thing on lyric appeal and melody. One of the first Americans to achieve this was Stephen Foster. Some branched into other fields of music for which they became famous such as Gershwin with his symphonic and piano compositions. Ferde Grofe who could be considered writing in the popular style also is noted for his compositions for the orchestra.

Among the composers studied with more detail were Vincent Youmans with his distinctive style and rare gift of making a few notes go a long way; Rudolf Friml, noted for his many light operas and also a piano concerto; Richard Rogers and Lorenz Hart, the perfectly balanced team; Irving Berlin, who has a greater number of real hit tunes to his credit than any other composer in history; Sigmund Romberg, for his many successful light operas; Cole Porter, who writes words and music with equal effect; George Gershwin, a firmly established great composer of modern times; and Victor Herbert, whose music was described as the last work in sparkling melody.

Illustrations of the compositions were given as follows: Through

Good Taste Today

By Emily Post

(Author of "Etiquette," "Children Are People," etc.)

UNIMAGINABLE RUDENESS

A woman reader asks: "What is your opinion about the practice of not prefixing a title to the name of an unmarried woman even when she is older than a married one? Some young people are taking it as a pattern for addressing their envelopes, judging by the few I've received lately."

Such behavior as you describe is an inexcusable rudeness and one which I am glad to say I never have heard of before.

—See for Clergyman

Dear Mrs. Post: How should the officiating clergyman at my wedding be given a title? He would have come to my wedding any way, since he is a relative, but he did not offer to perform the ceremony. We asked him. He also will have to come a fair distance either by train or car. What about those expenses?

Answer: Since he was coming to the wedding anyway, his expenses need not be considered. Do think a nice present would be more suitable than the usual fee.

Sending Your Woman Home Alone

Dear Mrs. Post: My son is "dating" a young woman who lives over an hour out of the center town, by train. She works in town so they meet after work. But later, at the end of their date, he feels that he should take her all the way home. Then, even though it is fairly early when they leave town, by the time he gets his own train, either it is just one or, if that has gone, he has to stay at a hotel for the night. I think it would be sufficient to put the girl on the train and send her home alone. I don't think it's up to him under these conditions. He thinks it is because she certainly takes his seeing her home for granted.

Answer: If it entails any such hardship for him as the description indicates, I think taking her home so late is too much to expect of anyone who then has to work next day. In fact, doing this more than occasionally might cost him his job.

Answering Invitation on Card

Dear Mrs. Post: Isn't it sufficient to write "accept with pleasure" or "sorry to have to refuse" on one's visiting card and send this in answer to a formal invitation?

Answer: A "formal" invitation must be answered in the third person. An informal answer to an informal invitation is all right.

Mrs. Post's booklet, "No. 501," "The Etiquette of Weddings," gives details on preparations for either small or large weddings. To obtain a copy send 10 cents (coin preferred) and a 3-cent stamp to her, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 59, Station C, New York 19, N. Y. Teacher Engaged To New Paltz Man

New Paltz, Jan. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. King, 89 Cannon street, Poughkeepsie, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Betty Ann King, to John J. Taylor, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of New Paltz. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss King is a graduate of Poughkeepsie High School, class of 1945, and New Paltz State Teachers College, class of 1948. She is teaching at Red Hook. Mr. Taylor, an alumnus of New Paltz High School, served in the navy for two and a half years. He is with the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corp.

Do You Remember

by SOPHIE MILLER

Just received a letter from F.A.G. of E. Chester street who writes: "I remember driving automobiles before there were any traffic laws. Forty years ago you could park on any street in the city either left or right side facing up or down. The autos in those days had side lamps that burned kerosene with a Presto-Lite tank for gas for the headlights. The first license plate that I had was the size of a silver dollar and was fastened under the driver's seat. I still have it. The 1910 Pierce Arrow I drove had a bar about four feet long that was released from under the driver's seat. Its purpose was to check the car if the brakes did not hold. I still have the bar but was used. The 1908 Cadillac I drove had no windshield. I have a picture of it for reference. Also have license plates used on cars from 1910 to 1949. The first motorcycle I rode was in 1914 and have been riding steadily ever since in the city of Kingston."

I am sure Mr. F.A.G. could tell me some strange incidents about the first automobiles and the drivers. I remember an auto salesman told me when he bought his first car they taught him how to start it but he wasn't quite sure how to stop it. He drove down Wall street and wanted to pull up to the curb, but instead started motoring down the sidewalk until he finally touched the proper lever which stopped the strange machine.

Back in October 1916, the Chamber of Commerce induced the Emerson Motor Co. of New York to take the old auto plant on Grand street which now houses the Electrol. The Emerson people planned to build a $395 auto. And I understand that the local police department owned one of the first Emerson 4 five-passenger cars which took the place of the mounted policemen covering the outskirts of the city on horseback. Remember Andrew W. Walker, who joined the police force on July 11, 1918 and was one of our "blue-coated mounties" and later became a motorcycle cop.

George Scher to Wed
New York, Jan. 12.—Miss Betty Lorraine Ross of 1527 Fourth avenue, Columbus, Ohio, and George Scher, a soldier of Ellenville, secured a marriage license at the city clerk's office here today.

The couple said they would be married soon.
Miss Ross, the daughter of J. P. and Bertha Hill Ross, was born in Atlanta, Ga. Mr. Scher was born in Buffalo, N. Y., the son of Meyer and Frances Scher. His marriage to the former Miss Adelstein was annulled in 1939. He was divorced from the former Rita Elches a year ago.

Ferraro's Bowlodrome Equipped In Brunswick Centennial Style

Modern Streamline
Featured All the Way

Ferraro's Bowlodrome which is formally opened to the Kingston bowling public Friday night represents the finest workmanship of Brunswick-Balle's modern, streamlined Centennial design and equipment.

The spacious, beautifully lighted 14-lane layout will be viewed by hundreds of bowlers and non-bowlers. Opening night ceremonies feature the appearance of Joe Wilman, national bowling star, and a number of vaudeville acts.

Brunswick equipment has always been noted for its expert engineering and sound craftsmanship. The Centennial equipment combines scientific construction with the newest refinements in design.

The brilliant fluorescent lighting spotlights all ten pins in soft light, free from glare. The 7 and 10 pins show up as sharply as the head pin. The four lights flash on a red reflection whenever a foul is recorded. Each lane is numbered by a beautiful illuminated plastic numeral.

No Distracting Elements

The Brunswick "masking units" are a boon to the bowlers because distracting elements are screened from view. Pinboy and pinsetting machinery are out of sight. . . there are no moving objects to distract the bowler.

Resplendent seating is an important part of modernization. Bowlers enjoy their play on lanes where comfort is provided. The maple settee with corner sections has been developed to allow a great flexibility in seating arrangements.

The settee has a comfortable form-fitting cushion and flexibility in arrangement.

The sleek design of the Centennial scoring equipment, table and chair, harmonizes smartly with other equipment. Each detail is designed for efficiency. All corners are rounded. New style metal holders permit score sheets to be inserted more easily and the scoreboard is sloped for comfortable writing. This ensemble includes two aluminum removable ash trays, two towel holders and a chalk receptacle.

The new Centennial lockers are finished in rust color. Each compartment is large enough to hold two bowling balls, ball bag and shoes, with a large pocket in the door for scorecard or record book. A step in front of the door prevents the ball from rolling out of the locker.

Solid Foundation

The alleys have been laid on a solid concrete foundation to insure maximum efficiency and longevity. They are built on a step-down arrangement. Three rows of spectator seats are conveniently aligned behind the alley approaches.

A soda fountain and snack bar will be ready for Friday's opening.

Brunswick's newest development, the Range Finder, is designed to revolutionize the method of teaching the "spot bowling" system. Joe Wilman believes that most bowlers can increase their pinfall considerably if they pay close attention to the directions outlined for the device.

The Range Finder

Cognizant of the fact that star bowlers select a "spot" on the alley over which they desire their ball to travel to reach the 1-3 pocket, the Brunswick technicians in perfecting the Range-Finder have developed standardized markings on the approaches, at the foul line, and on the alley itself to guide the average bowler and to teach him how to attain the same results as the experts.

Specifically the device consists of three groups of markings on the approaches and two out on the lanes. Those on the approaches are round dots set in the wood, one group extending across the middle of the approach 15 feet behind the foul line. Another set is situated 12 feet from the line, and another group is set at the foul line itself. Out on the lanes, a triangular V-shaped pattern of dots and dots are also installed.

The main object of the markings is to guide the bowler, from the first position back on the approach, all the way to the foul line in a straight line, so that he may determine the proper angle toward the head pin. Upon releasing the ball, he watches the path it takes across the triangular markings and finally the result, or the place at which the ball contacts the pins.

With close attention paid to all of this, the soon discovers the proper way to approach the line, and over what spots to roll the ball. The method is just as valuable for making spares as it is for strikes.

Just in case all this sounds a bit too technical, Joe Wilman will make it look simple Friday night.

Arcaro Is Suspended From West Coast Track

Arcadia, Calif., Jan. 13 (AP)—Eddie Arcaro, nation's stake riding champion, is under suspension for 10 days at Santa Anita track. Stewards said he caused interference in Tuesday's sixth race.

Stewards said yesterday that the little Italian came over sharply as the horse Rising Prices and caused a serious mixup in the race won by Bradenton. Rising Prices finished second.

Arcaro will be permitted to fill stakes engagements on file with the stewards during his suspension period, which started yesterday.

Bowling

A new league made its debut this week—Ferraro's Classic—but it was an old name that nailed down the high triple honors.

Brooks, the man without a first name, knocked off best-of-the-night with 248-166-207 in the six-team circuit.

Dick Howard, another member of the elite group, posted 203-173-226-802. Other top scores included Eddie Schupp's 230-569; Tony La Rocca 200-560; Joe Schrowang 221; J. Cashara 212-572; Eddie Selim 203-212-572; Roland Post 216-561; Jim Sereeto 219; John Ferraro 224.

Scores dipped in the Friendship League with Miriam Posner's 143-190-166-504 the only triple above the 500 mark.

Hilda Mathews posted 164-471; Winnie Overfield 160-471; Helen Murphy 181-496; Reta Fredrick 169-478; and that's all above 470.

Jack Haulenbeck fared all the way to 180-191-211-582 in the Y Federation National, a series that completely overshadowed the rest of the field.

J. Little shot 180-472; Gus Talieu 187-518 and Ad Schultz ditto with 188-518; Ray Otto 171-489; Hal Ferguson 182-482; Warren Simmons 209-478 and W. Lahl 180-472.

District Attorney Louis G. Bruhn was the man of distinction in the Central Rec wheel, firing games of 224, 222 and 171 for 617.

Stan Warren, the pool shark, bashed 224-218-590; Mike Amato 209; Pete Schline 223-551; Jimmy Costello 237-566; Ed Auchmoody 203; Ted Gile, Jr. 205; Adam Thiel 211; Cosmo Costello 210-568; S. Fassbender 201; R. Myers 203.

Jerry Ausanio packed steady games of 171-189-187 for a league-leading 547 in the Booster League at the Bowlodrome. Runnerup was Big Don Beany, regular Army man and former football star, with 179-185-149-501. All others fell below the coveted five-hundred mark.

Ted Lyle flirted with it, posting 181-495; L. Cross had 169-483; E. Harper 167-459; L. Helmer 168-453; B. Giles 177-468; Harold Steeger 198-480; D. Mendel 181-486; Milt Dubin 188-486; and H. Houghtaling 178-451.

Blasts 628 Triple

Rose Schatzel looked like the Queen of old Wednesday night at the Central Recreation lanes as she pounded out a sizzling 628 triple to spearhead the Colonial Women Keglettes. After posting a modest 170 game in her opening try, Mrs. Schatzel came back and pounded out games of 236 and 222 to walk off with high honors for the night.

Just a few pins off the pace was Miriam Posner who blasted a hefty 619 triple on a smooth series of 210-200-209.

Two big 600s sandwiched in with a powerful 534 triple by Margie Jansen sparked Ferraro's Bowlodrome to a clean sweep over Phelan and Cahill. The winners had a high game of 929 and triple of 2780.

Elsewhere in the Wednesday night circuit Helen Murphy took fourth place honors with 199-531; Markie Klarmark 174-515; Evelyn Gross 181-504; Charlotte Lanning 181-497; Evelyn Delsen 180-490; Arlene Van Buren 175-494 and Phyl Gehring 186-490.

The rumblings going on in the vicinity of Pine Grove avenue and Broadway last night were the result of some terrific pin-busting by Herbie Slight and Bill Hornbeck of the American Federation Bowling League at the Y.M.C.A. drives.

Herb turned in the top performance with a gaudy 606 three-timer on a string of 246-234-180 while Hornbeck took the runner-up slot on a 242 single and 645 series. His other scores were 622 and 211.

Don Weeks continued his nifty pinning with 205-586 for third place honors while Bill Murray rocked 209-522. Other good scores reported were Frank Roe with 192-520; H. Baltz 175-518; L. Brown 183-512; J. Crosby 178-512; Ray Cord 213-510; C. Hyde 188-507; and H. Pine 188-507.

Joe Hastings topped a low scoring session of the Catholic Athletic Association loop at Ferraro's Bowlodrome last night with a 234 single and 607 triple. Hastings opened with 202, came back with 234 in the middle game and wound up with a 171 solo for his 607 effort.

Other good scores included Ed Schupp with 485-522; Jack Daisy Schatzel 166-504; E. Tremley 202-515; L. Yonnetel 180-512; Raible 185-517; and Joe Mannello 180-507.

On London Card

London, Jan. 13 (AP)—Two American welterweights will fight in London February 7. They will appear on a Harringay Arena show promoted by Jack Solomons.

Tony Janiro of Youngstown, Ohio, will meet Henry Hall, British 147-pound champion. Billy Graham of New York will take on Eddie Thomas, promising Welsh miner.

West Sweeps Series

Honolulu, Jan. 13 (AP)—The West All Stars came from behind last night to defeat the East All Stars 12 to 6 and win a clean sweep of the two game 49th state bowl football series. In the first game between the two teams, composed of college players selected from the mainland's 1948 stars, the West defeated the East 24 to 19. The game was played last week.

Ignorance of Rule Spared Leo, Fitz; Ohters Cautioned

Cincinnati, Jan. 13 (AP)—It cost Leo Durocher, Freddie Fitzsimmons and the New York Giants stiff fines for negotiating a 1949 contract while the former Boston Braves coach was still a member of the beantown club.

The coach was still under contract to Boston and remained so until Dec. 31, 1948, Chandler continued. He added that players and coaches are under obligation to give their loyal services solely to the club with which they contract.

Fitzsimmons also was suspended for the 30-day period from March 1 to April 1. Chandler directed "he will not report to the New York club's training camp until April 2, 1949, and will not perform any service for the club until that date."

Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler yesterday fined the Giants manager, Fitzsimmons and the National League club for violating the tampering rule. Chandler also warned that more severe penalties are in store for anyone who does it again.

Durocher and Fitzsimmons were assessed $500 each and the Giants, $2,000, Chandler said.

"Clubs and their personnel are warned that future violations of the tampering rule will be accompanied by more severe penalties than those imposed in this instance."

"Coach Fitzsimmons and Manager Durocher both professed ignorance of the tampering rule. Such ignorance is not excused now and will not be in the future."

Recognized Service
According to the rules, a player or coach must have the written consent of his club before he may negotiate with another club.

Only because Fitzsimmons has had "long and honorable service in baseball," he was spared being banned for the 1949 season, Chandler said.

It was the second time Chandler has chastised Durocher former Brooklyn Dodgers manager. In 1947 Durocher was suspended as pilot of the Flatbush team.

Leo was set down then for making statements and being involved in incidents Chandler described as "detrimental to baseball."

In yesterday's action, Chandler held that conversations between Fitzsimmons and Durocher occurred without the knowledge or consent of the Boston club and Fitzsimmons was under acceptance terms by verbal agreement with Durocher, before any official of the Boston club knew negotiations were being conducted.

Boston Yanks Will Play in Stadium If Peace Prevails

New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—The Boston Yanks of the National Football League are ready to make Yankee Stadium a base of operations if peace between the major professional circuits is achieved before next fall.

Dan Topping, president of the New York Yanks, said he and Ted Collins, owner of the Boston franchise, have come to terms on the stadium issue.

Also, he said, an equitable schedule had been worked out between the Yanks and New York Giants.

Topping met with Collins, President Jack Mara of the football Giants and President Horace Stoneham of the New York baseball Giants to work out details.

"If the two leagues can settle their differences," Topping said, "the way is set for the Boston Yanks to play at the stadium this year."

The Boston franchise earlier had been shifted to New York.

The head of the New York Yanks said he would pull his team out of the All-American Conference and rent his stadium if it would further football peace. Otherwise, he said, his boys will stay in business.

Directors of the rival circuits are expected to try to reach an agreement next week in Chicago. The A.A.C. meets Jan. 18—two days before the annual gathering of the N.F.L. chiefs.

Louis Seeks Winner of Charles Savold Bout for Championship Match—Eagan

New York, Jan. 13 (AP)—Joe Louis wants to defend his heavyweight boxing championship next June against the winner of a fight between Ezzard Charles and Lee Savold.

This was disclosed last night by Col. Edward Eagan, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, who said the Brown Bomber had assured him he will fight one more time.

Eagan injected this semi-official announcement of the champion's plans into the after-dinner informalities of the New York boxing writers' annual function.

Williams Honored

The writers gathered for the principal purpose of honoring Ike Williams, the busy lightweight champion from Trenton, N. J., and Dan Morgan, 75-year-old veteran fight manager.

Williams received the Edward J. Neil Memorial award as the man who did the most for boxing in 1948.

The award was set up in memory of the former Associated Press boxing writer and war correspondent who was killed during the Spanish Civil War.

Williams defended his title three times during the past year and fought ten times. He also received a special Ring magazine medal as "boxer of the year."

Morgan was given the James J. Walker award for long and meritorious service to the sport.

The Neil award was presented by Nat Fleischer, president of the Boxing Writers. James A. Farley, former postmaster general and New York state athletic commissioner, made the presentation to Morgan.

Eagan brought up the Louis' title defense in his regular report to the meeting in which he described the financial health of the ring business.

The commission head said he had talked by telephone with Louis, in Topeka, Kansas.

Plans June Fight

"I asked Joe if he planned to fight again," Eagan related. "He said, yes, he did. He said he would fight in June and there were two possibilities as foes—Ezzard Charles and Lee Savold. He said he'd defend his crown against the winner."

Charles, the Cincinnati Sniper of has been fighting in the light-heavy class, and Savold, the Paterson, N. J., heavy who is in England, haven't been matched.

Savold, who lost on a foul in London to England's Bruce Woodcock, plans a series of exhibitions overseas before returning home.

In his boxing report, Eagan said the gross receipts for boxing and wrestling in New York state last

Tribe Buys Fresh

Chicago, Jan. 13 (AP)—M. T. Fresh's 10-year-old tenure as a catcher with the Chicago White Sox has ended with his sale to the Cleveland Indians for an unannounced sum of cash. Frank Lane, general manager of the White Sox, said yesterday the sale is preliminary to a later transaction by which the Sox will obtain a young infielder from the Indians.

He said the Sox hope to land either Al Rosen or Ray Boone, promising infielders, or Frank Marsh, who played with Oklahoma City last season.

with CHARLIE TIANO

● Bagatelles:

Bowling reaches a seasonal crescendo in Kingston over the weekend, with dedication ceremonies Friday night at Johnny Ferraro's Bowlodrome with Joe Wilman; and the Dobler-Newburgh Cy's Dinner Sunday afternoon. . . . That's Tony Mack, Nick Lepe and company who recently rolled 1214 for national rating. . . .

● Flotsam and Jetsam:

"Bo" Gill is staging a one-man campaign exhorting N.E.A. basketball to beat Kingston on January 18 in the Hill City. If sheer weight of words can do the trick, Mr. Gill figures to have the Academicians "up" for this major brawl. . . . Kingstonians have not forgotten that squander last year in the Hill City. . . . Meantime we think the Maroon cannot be rated a prohibitive favorite over any club in the conference. . . . Not without Joe Albany, the best rebound man in the circuit. . . . Mike Klenow will have to return to scoring form to offset the loss in the rebound department. . . . If he does, "The Champ" and "The Kid" will conduct themselves in the highest Maroon traditions up front. . . . Assuming that Klenow approaches the form that ranked him second to Big Ed Weaver in scoring during last year's perfect season, the burden of proof that Kingston isn't what it used to be rests with the DUSO pretenders.

Conservation Commissioner Perry B. Duryea has just sent along the annual press pass for the Olympic bobsled run at Lake Placid, a duet that definitely will not be used. . . . If you would like the chance to hold your hat and ride down that run, all for free, you are welcome to it. . . . Just phone the department.

Donk Walker says he may forego professional football to take up ranching. . . . Maybe Southern Methodist's All-American halfback figures there's more money in T-bones than T-formation. . . . First to be honored with plaques in golf's Hall-of-Fame in Evanston, Ill., are Bobby Jones, Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen and Francis Ouimet, a fair quartet of duffers. . . . By hook or by slyce a lot of other dividers hope to gain.

● Brunching With the Outdoor Men:

We came away from the annual banquet of the Lake Katrine Rod and Gun Club impressed by the growth of the organization within the past three years. A splendid technicolor pictorial review filmed by Elliott Clark told a story of a great job, well done, with a maximum of sweat and a minimum of financial remuneration by a group of sports-minded men who had a dream and made it come true. . . . From a barely accessible niche in the woods off the Neighborhood Road, the Lake Katrine club has become a thriving center of civilization with hundreds of sportsmen enjoying man's second oldest sport. . . . Chasing women, of course, must always be rated first.

● Of Pillars and Workers:

Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk retired as president after two successful regimes. . . . Les Hotaling and Elliott Clark, two of the founders of the club, bowed out after long years of distinguished service. . . . Harold Macholdt moves in as president; Big Ben Krum, the bag-man, is now vice-president; Nick LaLima secretary; Joe Duncan, treasurer; and Frank Hornbeck, field captain. . . . Judging from the number of refusals, the latter job must be a hot potato. . . . They almost had the squeeze play on Bob Morhouse but when his voice changed from terror to bravado, they knew he wasn't kidding. . . . Hornbeck was elected in absentia which at the moment seemed the best way to break the deadlock in the convention. . . . Mr. Hornbeck's reaction has not been reported.

It was a genuine pleasure to break bread with such renowned hunters as George Fleming whose new bear hunting technique is the rage of the outdoor world; Emerson Mayes, the only man on record who ever bagged a deer by scaring it to death; and Nick LaLima who finds pheasants lying on the ground after he shoots into the blank sky. . . . Mayor Newkirk pointed out that an estimated 30,000 hunters bagged slightly over 31,000 deer last season. . . . Roughly 10 to 1 against the hunter. . . . Judging from the manner in which some of his colleagues had conducted themselves on the range during the season, he said he felt that any deer would be reasonably safe if his boys were aiming at it.

THE MAYOR OF CAT HOLLER SAYS: I think he's regaining consciousness, doctor. He tried to blow the foam off his medicine.

Would Serve Notice

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 13 (AP)—Property owners throughout the state would receive notice of an increase in tax assessments under a bill introduced in the Legislature today. The measure, sponsored by Senator Seymour Hal-porn and Assemblyman Fred W. Freiler, Queens Republicans, would amend a law passed in 1947 requiring such notice from towns, so that other municipalities and tax districts would be covered. In a statement accompanying their bill the sponsors said enactment "would eliminate the need for tax-an Anglo-American policy and carry it out."

Eden said the destruction of five British planes by Israeli forces during a battle between Jews and Arabs on the Palestine-Egyptian border last Friday was "an unwarranted and aggressive act."

But he added:

"Why were our aircraft sent to carry out a reconnaissance over battle areas in such conditions?"

"What useful British purpose could the flight be held to serve?"

Those were a sample of the questions expected to be asked by both Conservative and Laborite critics when Parliament meets again next week. It resumes sessions Tuesday.

A Labor M.P., W. N. Warbey, told a Jewish Socialist party gathering in London the British-Israeli tension grew out of "the great irresponsibility of British authorities in sending military aircraft into the battle area."

Another View Emphasized

Another view was emphasized in the Daily Express, an independent imperialist newspaper. It said Britain must give everybody notice she "is not a lodger, but one of the landlords" in the Middle East.

Aside from defense, a primary British interest is access to Middle Eastern oil. This factor was emphasized in the prediction of Egyptian government officials in Cairo yesterday that the Sinai desert area east of the Suez Canal will become one of the richest oil producing regions in the world.

A prospecting well drilled by Socony Vacuum not far from Sidi came into production this week. Government officials estimated the new field will yield 5,000 tons of petroleum a day. This is more than the daily production of all Egyptian fields in 1946.

Blind Man Now Promising Sculptor

Arthur Schneider was blinded by a Russian bullet during the war. Sightless Sculptor at Work

One night, Arthur Schneider, who had been blinded by a Russian bullet during the war, picked up a piece of plaster to while away the time. By morning he had fashioned a crude elephant—and had started a hobby that has since developed into a promising career. inally slated for pay boosts as the bill was drafted.

The bill as approved by the Senate Civil Service Committee, would increase the President's pay by $25,000 and give him a new $50,000 expense allowance. It carries smaller raises for the vice president, speaker and other top executives.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, assistant Democratic leader, said in advance he will "feel compelled" to ask that all except pay increases for the President, vice president and speaker be dropped from the bill at this time.

He said this is because House committees have not been organized and the bill can be taken up quickly in the House only under procedure that would permit one member to block consideration.

"Served Notice"

Senator Wherry (R.-Neb.), minority floor leader, said he had been told that the House "served notice" that all it would consider now was pay raises for the President, vice president and speaker.

Senator Flanders (R.-Vt.), one of the authors of the bill, said he thinks the whole bill could be passed in the Senate. The Civil Service Committee, of which he is a member, voted 10 to 1 for it.

"I am afraid that if it doesn't go through now," he said, "that it will take weeks and months" to lift the salaries of all except the top three.

Mr. Truman, without mentioning his own salary, has asked quick approval of salary raises for members of his cabinet and other high officials. He said private industry is outbidding the government for able men.

Under the legislation the President's salary would be raised from $75,000 to $100,000. The $50,000 expense allowance it also provides for him would be tax free and in addition to $40,000 he now has for traveling and maintenance expenses.

The vice president and speaker would receive salaries of $30,000 each, an increase of $10,000. They also would get $10,000 expense allowances. The speaker, like other House members, now has a tax-free expense allowance of $2,500.

Cabinet members would be raised by the bill from $15,000 to $25,000. The pay of the heads and assistant heads of independent agencies and members of independent boards and commissions would be set at $22,500, $20,000 and $17,500. Most of them now receive from $10,000 to $12,000.

Also included in the bill are pay raises of $330 a year for District of Columbia and foreign service employees who were left out of a general pay boost measure last year.

Crisp Cups

To make crisp cups for creamed foods cut unsliced bread in two-inch thick slices and remove the crusts, hollow out centers and brush the inside and outside with melted butter or margarine. Bake in a moderately hot oven for about fifteen minutes, or until golden brown.

Coffee House Talk

With coffee removed from Vienna rationing lists, the city has resumed its three-centuries-old custom of gathering in coffee houses for discussions.

NOTICE TO THE RESIDENTS OF ULSTER TOWNSHIP

Last September Ulster Hose Co. No. 5 requested of the Town Board, Town of Ulster, that a Fire Protection District be formed covering that area of the town not included in the Fifth Fire District and the Ruby-Mount Marion Fire District. This matter was legally advertised and a public hearing concerning same conducted by the Town Board. At this hearing there was no dissenting voice from the taxpayers present, and the Town Board agreed to take action in the matter.

The Town Board of the Town of Ulster during the intervening five months since this hearing has not yet created the Fire Protection District in question.

In explanation to the residents of this proposed fire protection district, may we call to your attention the fact that you have been receiving without cost, fire protection paid for by the taxes of residents of the Fifth Fire District and voluntarily furnished by Ulster Hose Company members. Ulster Hose Company No. 5 during this period has covered more calls outside of their district than the number of fires occurring within the district.

We believe that the average taxpayer in the proposed fire district would not be adverse to the payment of a yearly tax of approximately $2.00 for such fire protection.

Inasmuch as the Town Board has not yet taken action, we regret to inform you that after January 15, 1949, Ulster Hose Co. No. 5 will not furnish fire protection outside of the Fifth Fire District.

We suggest that you make your wishes in this matter known to the Town Board by petition or by whatever means at your command in order that you may be assured of fire protection in the future.

Foe of Controls

New chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, which will act on President Truman's anti-inflation program, is Sen. Burton K. Maybank, South Carolina Democrat. Maybank, an avowed foe of price controls, says he doesn't believe controls, even on a "standby" basis, will be needed this year.

Radio Series of Episcopal Church

Eddie Albert and his wife, Margo, outstanding young couple of stage and screen, will co-star in "The Farmer Takes a Wife," a drama by Elmer and Connelly, to be broadcast Friday evening over Station WKNY at 8 p. m.

"The Farmer Takes a Wife" centers around the Erie Canal when it was the throbbing main artery of the nation's commerce. Margo (Molly Larkin) lived on, worked on, and loved the Erie. . . she was a true "canawier." But Eddie Albert (Dan Harvey) wanted to leave the canal and buy a farm. And though Molly loved Dan she feared and resisted change. . . she believed true security depended on maintaining things as they were. Almost too late, Molly did learn that true security and happiness depend on an inner strength. . . on what is in the heart. And the play ends happily when, as its title says, "The Farmer Takes a Wife."

Tug Strike Hour

strike would cause "many hardships" to the public and would be "deleterious" to the health of the people of New York.

Tugs took a substantial portion of the fuel and food used in New York city. Four-fifths of the city is surrounded by water.
Tugs also maneuver the ships which make New York the nation's biggest port. If they stop, virtually all important shipping stops.

In 1946 a tugboat strike hit the New York metropolitan area with as smothering an impact as any strike in its history. Whenever a shipping tieup of any duration occurs in the city, freight stacks up and industry is slowly affected.
The employers' committee asked the union to extend the strike deadline to midnight tomorrow after 13 hours of negotiations. The employers said they wanted additional time to consider demands for the basic overtime clause in a new contract.

After announcement of the postponement, negotiations continued for a time between representatives of the tugboat and fuel oil barge crewmen and the Marine Towing and Transportation Employers Association.

Another strike, which would have cut off coal and fuel oil truck deliveries to most of the city, was averted shortly before the deadline last night. Members of an A.F.L. International Brotherhood of Teamsters local voted final approval of a wage increase settlement reached in negotiations on Thursday.

The agreement raises pay of coal truck drivers by $1.75 a day and of fuel oil truck drivers by $2.25 a day, boosting both groups to $14 for an eight-hour day. The contract also will include other benefits. The union had sought a flat $16 a day and other benefits.

U.N. Will Resume Kashmir Hearing

Lake Success, Jan. 13 (AP)—The United Nations Security Council will resume discussions today on Kashmir, where U.N. has chalked up one of its most successful attempts to keep the peace.

The Council will meet at 3 p. m. (E.S.T.) to hear a report from its Kashmir commission on agreed terms for a plebiscite on the political future of the princely state, which adjoins the northern border of both India and Pakistan.

Final decision to hold the plebiscite was incorporated in a commission resolution adopted in Paris in December calling for a cease-fire between troops of India and Pakistan in Kashmir. The truce became effective Jan. 1, and there have been no charges from either side of serious violations since that date.

U.N. Secretary General Trygve Lie said yesterday an administrator for the plebiscite will be appointed within two weeks. He added he had received no proposal that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia University, be named to that post. There have been reports that Eisenhower might be asked to serve.

No date has been set for holding the plebiscite. Observers here believe the voting cannot conveniently be held before next fall.

In Kashmir, a Hindu maharajah rules a Muslim majority representing more than three-fourths of the 4,000,000 population. Tension began after division of the Indian subcontinent and the end of British rule Aug. 15, 1947.

Soon after that date Sir Hari Singh, Maharajah of Jammu and Kashmir, complained his domains were being invaded by Muslim tribesmen from beyond his borders and appealed to India for aid.

India filed a formal complaint with the Security Council Jan. 2, 1948, asking U.N. to prevent Pakistan from assisting in the invasion by the tribesmen. A commission composed of representatives of three countries—Czechoslovakia, Argentina and the United States—was set up to investigate these charges. This commission was expanded by the inclusion of Belgium and Colombia.

The commission left for the subcontinent last June and spent the summer in on-the-spot investigations.

Army May Be Forced To Cut Down Enlistments

Washington, Jan. 13 (AP)—The army, which asked for the present draft law to keep its strength high, may find itself turning down some voluntary enlistments soon to keep from going beyond budget limits.

In any case, Maj. Gen. John E. Dahlquist said, no men will be drafted as long as recruits keep coming at the present 35,000-a-month rate unless strength requirements change. Dahlquist is the army's deputy director of personnel and administration.

The ceiling of 677,000 officers and men for the year starting July 1 which President Truman set in his budget message to Congress Monday has already been reached. That was a cut from the previously authorized total of 937,000.

The army, which has announced it will take no draftees during February and March, denied a report yesterday that it was considering a proposal to release some of the 30,000 men already drafted in order to make room for longer-term volunteers.

It did, however, say it was studying these two proposals: 1. Cutting out two year enlistments and making three years the minimum; 2. Raising enlistment standards.

the "Black Dahlia" in a Los Angeles bar.

Since Miss Short, 22, waitress with many boy friends, was killed, police have questioned hundreds of persons and have investigated more than 50 "confessions" throughout the nation, all of which have been disproved.

The present investigation developed after Dillon, from Miami, Fla., wrote to a police psychiatrist here, then came here to discuss the Dahlia case with him, was arrested, booked Monday and released.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Grace Allen of Los Angeles told a reporter she is the divorced wife of Connors and said he was working in a Hollywood studio the night before the Dahlia killing came to light. She said that when the newspapers appeared next day Connors talked about the case and warned her about the dangers of going out alone.

Connors said "Jeff Connors" was a professional name. Mrs. Allen said his real name is Arthur H. Lone. She said she would give any information she could to the police today.

record for small planes. The record is 2,061 miles, set September 23, 1937, by two Russians.

Before he crawled into the plane, Odum was up to his ears in ice. A crowd of well-wishers talked their way through police lines to cluster around the plane while it was being gassed.

"They muttered protests when L. B. Loring, Federal Department of Agriculture inspector, took four oranges and three bananas out of Odum's lunch box."

"Want to check my emergency rations, too," Odum challenged angrily. "I promise I'll get that fruit before I land. I'll never get to the ground."

But the inspector took away the fruit. He explained fresh fruit is prohibited from leaving Hawaii because of possible fruit fly infestation.

"I have to do it," said the inspector. He later handed Odum a folded slip and said, "here's clearance. You may need it at your destination."

"Thanks, thanks very much," Odum grinned, in good humor again.

Odum lifted the plane's wheels after it had rolled only 10 feet down the mile-long runway. The "Waikiki Beach" eased slowly upward until it crossed the end of the runway and then began a faster climb.

Lt. Cmdr. William C. Hartman of Alameda, Calif., the navy pilot, said his big plane could fly at even speed with Odum's 135-mile-an-hour pace.

Forest Fire Prevention

The possibility of preventing lightning-caused forest fires by eliminating lightning itself is suggested by a weather scientist. The scheme includes the transmission of towering cumulus clouds in the area to snow by the use of dry ice.
